issue. "We have lost hope in Arvind Kejriwal. So, we will meet the Lt Governor and the Union Urban Development Minister for a solution to this problem," he said.

The sealing drive is being carried out by municipal corporations against properties violating civics norms.

sealing was hanging over traders, the then Congress-led Centre approached the court and enacted a law and made amendments in the Master Plan of Delhi 2021."

Maken and leaders from the other two parties have been visiting traders, whose commercial units have been sealed.

Meanwhile, Maken speaking at a one-day hunger strike by the traders of Delhi to protest against the on-going strict presidents, will visit their nearby markets in support of the traders, he said.

He directed the chairman of the Delhi Congress Legal Cell, advocate Sunil Kumar, to form a team of advocates to provide free legal aid to the Delhi traders on the issue of sealing.

The BJP-led Central Government, through the Attorney General, should immediately approach the Supreme Court to get relief legal rights to ply their trade and they need not beg for mercy from any one, he maintained.

Maken, said municipal corporations of Delhi were conducting the sealing drive in the establishments for illegally collecting conversion charges from the traders. There are 8,75,000 commercial establishments in Delhi out of which 5,12,000 are different types of shops.

Customs seizes gold worth Rs 18 lakh

TSN/New Delhi

The customs department on Tuesday seized over 500 grams of gold worth around Rs 18 lakh from a man at the international airport here, according to an official statement.

The accused was intercepted by the customs department officials upon his arrival from Rome.

A detailed baggage and personal search of the passenger resulted in recovery of about 523 grams of gold concealed in his hand baggage, it said.

The value of the seized gold is around Rs 18 lakh, the statement said, adding the passenger has not been arrested.
