

TOBACCO WARNING FIRE

India's apex court on Wednesday asked tobacco firms to adhere to new rules which mandate 85% of a cigarette pack being covered in pictorial warning. While this has been met with protests in India, a look at countries which have mandated that cigarette packs be covered with at least 50% warning.

Cigarette package health warnings in 2016

Source: Reuters