

ELECTED MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS IN DELHI

NORTH DELHI CIVIC BODY

The North Delhi Municipal Corporation inherited a debt of around ₹750 crore during the trifurcation of the MCD in 2012. It has 22 colonies in the A, B and C categories. Schools run by this corporation recorded the highest dropout. The residences of Delhi's Lieutenant Governor and chief minister fall under its jurisdiction. Main problems in the area are illegal construction, cleaning of garbage and clogged drains.

EAST DELHI CIVIC BODY

The smallest among the three civic bodies and inherited debt of around ₹451 crore during the trifurcation of the MCD in 2012. Its property tax collection is the lowest, as not a single colony falls in the posh A, B and C categories. Areas under these civic bodies are susceptible to outbreak of disease because of uncleaning of garbage and open drains. East Delhi is believed to be having highest concentration of migrant population from Uttar Pradesh and Bihar

WILL 'MODI WAVE' WORK?

The BJP is expecting to win on Prime Minister Narendra Modi's popularity, similar to its success in the recent elections in five states. The aim would be to contain AAP as happened with the Bahujan Samaj Party and the Samajwadi Party in Uttar Pradesh
