Le Lavoir Limited Acquires 51% Stake in Shree Vrajendra Foods Private Limited Plans ₹10 Crores Investment to Expand Food Staples Business

Mumbai, India – July 2, 2025 – Le Lavoir Limited (BSE: 539814), a trusted service partner to India’s leading hotel chains, today announced the acquisition of a 51% equity stake in Shree Vrajendra Foods Private Limited, a Rajkot-based manufacturer and trader of foodgrains, edible oils, and other food staples. The deal is structured as an all-equity transaction, with no cash outflow, wherein the promoters of Shree Vrajendra Foods will receive shares in Le Lavoir Limited.

This is Le Lavoir’s second strategic acquisition in the staple foods segment, following its recent 64.5% acquisition of Ghantiram Foods Private Limited, also based in Rajkot. These acquisitions form part of the company’s focused strategy to expand its portfolio and become a comprehensive service provider to the hospitality industry.

“The acquisition of Vrajendra Foods Private Limited is a part of our strategy to provide a wider set of services to our clients in the hospitality sector,” said Dr. Ashoak Kumar Jain, Chairman, Le Lavoir Limited.

“Packaged staples are major consumables for the hospitality industry. Both of our recent acquisitions will enable us to leverage our existing relationships, and provide these additional services to our existing clientele,” he added.

“We plan to invest ₹10 crores in Shree Vrajendra Foods Private Limited over the next two years to expand its operations,” Dr. Jain further stated.

To support this expansion and other strategic initiatives, Le Lavoir plans to raise funds through a preferential allotment of equity share warrants being issued to select investors.

Le Lavoir’s pioneering service model has made it a preferred vendor to many of India’s premier hotel brands. From its current operational base in Mumbai, the company is now set to expand to Delhi NCR, Bengaluru, Chennai, Hyderabad, Kolkata, Pune, Goa, Ahmedabad, Jaipur, and Surat over the next two years.

India’s $250+ billion hospitality sector continues to grow rapidly, driven by a surge in leisure tourism, business travel, and MICE (Meetings, Incentives, Conferences, and Exhibitions). As the industry becomes more organized, leading hotel chains are increasingly seeking vendors capable of delivering consistent, high-quality services at scale across the country.
