KVB launches rural-focussed bancassurance

Karur, July 2: Karur Vysya Bank (KVB) and Kshema General Insurance Ltd have announced a strategic bancassurance partnership to introduce Kshema Kisan Sathi - a dual-benefit insurance product combining crop insurance and personal accident cover for rural and agri-focused communities.

This collaboration leverages KVB's strong rural presence and Kshema's tech-driven insurance solutions, including AI-powered risk assessment and satellite imaging, to provide proactive and predictive protection.

Speaking on the alliance, Ramesh Babu, managing director & CEO, Karur Vysya Bank said, "As a Bank deeply embedded in India's rural landscape, we understand the challenges our customers face in their day-to-day lives. With Kshema Kisan Sathi, we are not just offering an insurance product; we are delivering peace of mind. This partnership reflects our commitment to build meaningful financial ecosystems that support sustainable livelihoods. It is aligned with our long-term vision to create a resilient, secure, and self-reliant rural economy through inclusive banking and value-added offerings." Natraj Nukala, chairman, Kshema General Insurance said "This exclusive product is the keystone in Kshema's plan of building a data-driven rural ecosystem intelligence using financial and insurance insights while deploying tech-forward innovations like satellite imaging to build predictive, preventive, and proactive solutions." Aligned with government and IRDAI's goal of 'Insurance for All' by 2047, the partnership aims to strengthen and secure the livelihoods of farmers and rural entrepreneurs across India.

TAFE, AGCO reach settlement on brand rights

Chennai, July 2: TAFE announced a full settlement with AGCO covering brand rights, commercial issues, and shareholding. Key points: TAFE becomes the sole owner of the Massey Ferguson brand in India, Nepal, and Bhutan.

TAFE will buy back AGCO's 20.7% stake for $260 million, becoming a wholly owned subsidiary of the Amalgamations Group. TAFE retains a 16.3% stake in AGCO, capped at that level, and will participate in AGCO's buybacks to maintain proportionate ownership.

TAFE will vote its AGCO shares in line with AGCO's board recommendations, subject to certain exceptions, and remain a long-term investor through regular engagement. All commercial agreements will be terminated, but TAFE will fulfill outstanding supply orders and continue supplying parts under agreed terms.

All ongoing legal proceedings will be withdrawn, and a consent decree sought in pending trademark suits in the Madras High Court. The settlement takes effect after required approvals and processes in India are completed. Mallika Srinivasan, Chairman & Managing Director - TAFE, said, "As we step into a new era in TAFE's growth story, we recognize and cherish the long partnership we've had with AGCO, and continue to support AGCO as an engaged shareholder."

She added that, "TAFE and Massey Ferguson have been synonymous in the minds of the Indian customers for over 65 years. We re-dedicate our commitment to agriculture through our innovative products, solutions and service to the farming community in India. As we move towards our vision of 'Cultivating the World', we are confident of delivering exceptional value to all our stakeholders."

ASUS new store in Mogappair

Chennai, July 2: As part of its ongoing retail expansion in India, ASUS, the Taiwanese tech giant, has launched a new exclusive store in Mogappair, Chennai. Spread across 220 sq. ft., the store showcases a wide range of ASUS products, including Vivobook and Zenbook laptops, Republic of Gamers (ROG) laptops, gaming desktops, all-in-one PCs, and accessories. This marks the brand's 32nd store in the Chennai region.

Commenting on the launch, Jignesh Bhavsar, National Sales Manager - PC & Gaming Business, ASUS India, said, "We're thrilled to expand our retail footprint in India. Chennai is an important market, and the new store in Mogappair strengthens our commitment to bringing the latest innovations closer to consumers. Through strategic expansion, we aim to create more touchpoints and meaningful engagement with our users."

AU SFB, LIC to expand life insurance access

Chennai, July 2: AU Small Finance Bank (AU SFB), India's largest Small Finance Bank, has announced a strategic partnership with Life Insurance Corporation of India (LIC), the country's largest life insurer. The collaboration supports the national vision of 'Insurance for All by 2047', aimed at deepening insurance penetration and financial protection across India's underserved population.

Under this tie-up, AU SFB will distribute LIC's comprehensive portfolio of life insurance solutions, including term insurance, endowment plans, whole life policies, pension and annuity products, and child-specific plans catering to a broad spectrum of protection and retirement needs. These offerings will be available across AU SFB's 2,456+ banking touchpoints in 21 states and 4 union territories, significantly expanding LIC's reach into rural and semi-urban regions.

Uttam Tibrewal, Executive Director and Deputy CEO, AU Small Finance Bank, said: "This strategic partnership brings together two institutions committed towards providing inclusive financial services to unserved and underserved. By leveraging our distribution strength and LIC's trusted insurance products, we aim to provide comprehensive protection and retirement solutions to customers across Bharat and enhance comprehensive banking experience."

ICICI Prudential unveils affordable youth plan

Chennai, Jul 2: ICICI Prudential Life Insurance has introduced the ICICI Pru Smart Insurance Plan Plus, a market-linked product aimed at helping young customers build long-term wealth.

Affordable: Minimum monthly premium of just Rs.1,000. Flexible: Choice of 25 funds and four portfolio strategies; free fund switches without cost or tax implications.

Secure: Includes life cover and an optional Waiver of Premium benefit to keep savings on track even if the policyholder is no longer around.

Digital: Fully enabled for online purchase to suit the digital-first preferences of the youth.

Amit Palta, Chief Product and Distribution Officer, highlighted that ULIPs like this are designed to encourage early and systematic investing, aligning with the financial aspirations of India's young population. The product offers a cost-effective, tax-efficient way to invest while ensuring financial protection for the family.

Shell acquires Raj Petro Specialities

Chennai, Jul 2: Shell Lubricants has successfully completed the acquisition of a 100% equity interest in Raj Petro Specialities Pvt. Ltd. from the Brenntag Group.

The acquisition of Raj Petro Specialities supports Shell Lubricants as it strives to grow its portfolio and customer base in India, which is one of its key growth markets.

"The addition of Raj Petro Specialities will help maximise value for Shell through a complementary product portfolio and increased scale of business, positioning Shell Lubricants for further growth in line with our unwavering focus on performance, discipline, and simplification", said Jason Wong, Shell's Executive Vice President for Global Lubricants.

Chennai to host major job fair for ex-servicemen

Chennai, July 2: Air Force Station Tambaram, Chennai, is set to host a significant Employment Fair on July 4, 2025, from 0700 hrs to 1730 hrs. Organised under the aegis of the Directorate General Resettlement (DGR), Dept of Ex-Servicemen Welfare, Ministry of Defence, the event aims to provide meaningful second career opportunities for retiring and retired Armed Forces personnel.

The fair will serve as a crucial platform for ex-servicemen to interact directly with leading corporate sectors from across the country, facilitating their transition into civilian employment. A large turnout of veterans and corporate representatives is anticipated.

This initiative seeks to enhance awareness among industries about the invaluable resource of disciplined, skilled, and experienced personnel available in the form of ex-servicemen. It also empowers retiring personnel to explore diverse employment avenues across various economic sectors.

Senior officials from the Ministry of Defence, Directorate General of Resettlement, and the three Services are expected to attend, underscoring the importance of this event.

The fair is seen as a vital step in strengthening civil-military cooperation in the domain of resettlement and rehabilitation of Armed Forces personnel through gainful employment.

Many Armed Forces personnel retire early in their careers, making such opportunities crucial for them to contribute their expertise and experience in civilian sectors for the remainder of their working lives.

BEML boosts aerospace push with new facility

Chennai, July 2: Reaffirming its commitment to making Bengaluru a global aerospace hub, BEML Limited has inaugurated a state-of-the-art warehousing facility spanning 0.12 acres at the KIADB Aerospace SEZ near Kempegowda International Airport. The facility was inaugurated by CMD Shri Shantanu Roy, alongside senior BEML officials and KIADB dignitaries.

BEML also laid the foundation stone for Phase II—a 1.15-acre expansion within the SEZ. Holding 25 acres in total here, BEML plans to develop it into a major industrial hub serving the defence and aviation sectors.

Highlighting its broader vision, BEML aims to set up a dedicated 20-acre manufacturing unit for next-generation aerostuctures, drones, and air defence components through collaborations with global OEMs.

To manage warehousing operations, BEML has partnered with logistics provider LOM SUPPLY CHAIN INDIA. Beyond internal use, the facility will also support other OEMs and suppliers, strengthening the aerospace supply chain ecosystem.

CMD Shantanu Roy noted that this facility is a strategic step towards enhancing advanced manufacturing, MRO services, and global exports, aligned with international standards, further supporting Karnataka's vision of a world-class aerospace hub.

TenderCuts targets Rs. 120 cr ARR

Chennai, July 2: TenderCuts, India's first omnichannel meat and seafood brand, has bounced back after restructuring, achieving Rs. 70 crore ARR in six months and aiming for Rs. 120 crore ARR by March 2026.

Operating through 18 lean outlets in Chennai, TenderCuts offers fresh meat, seafood, and ready-to-cook products, processed after each order and tracked via its freshness tracker app.

Co-founder Sasikumar

Kallanai said the brand's comeback is driven by increased store footfall and online deliveries, reaffirming its reputation for quality and hygiene in the organised meat market.
