TRUST Asset Management launches Money Market Fund

Chennai, Aug 2: TRUST Asset Management announced the launch of its New Fund Offer (NFO) - the TRUSTME Money Market Fund. Sandeep Bagla, CEO, TRUST Asset Management, said, "We are happy to announce the launch of TRUSTME Money Market Fund. We continue to focus on our key ethos of providing credible investment solution to our investors. The aim of the fund is to take advantage of the Money Market yield curve which has seen perennial steepness. In these uncertain times, Money Market Mutual Funds will provide relative stability and reasonable returns to investors looking to park their surplus money for 3 to 6 months investment horizon."

The NFO opens for subscription from 08th August 2022 and closes on 11th August 2022. The fund will be managed by Anand Nevatia, Fund Manager, TRUST Mutual Fund. This is the fifth addition to TRUST Mutual Fund's Fixed Income product portfolio.

The Key Highlights of TRUSTME Money Market Fund are: To seek benefit from steepness in the Money Market yield curve. Predominant investment into 6-month instruments, where steepness is currently the highest. Minimal credit, interest rate and liquidity risk.

Anand Nevatia, Fund Manager, TRUST Mutual Fund said, "The change in stance from RBI followed by a series of rate hikes, has resulted in abnormal steepness in the money market yield curve, particularly an overnight to 6-month curve. The TRUSTME Money Market Fund will look to invest predominantly in 6-month instruments of high quality issuers and let them roll down to take benefit of the steepness. This steepness can provide a good opportunity to lock in higher yields and can also provide downside protection from imminent rate hikes. We believe this is an ideal strategy for short-term deployments in these volatile times."
