Russian drone strikes hit Ukrainian port

Russian strikes cause significant damage and a huge fire at facilities that are key to Ukrainian grain exports

Russian drones on Wednesday hit a Ukrainian port city along the border with Romania, causing significant damage and a huge fire at facilities that are key to Ukrainian grain exports.

The attacks followed the end of a deal with Russia that had allowed Ukrainian shipments to world markets from the Black Sea port of Odesa. Since scrapping the deal, Russia has hammered the country's ports with strikes, compounding the blow to the key industry. In the past two weeks, dozens of drones and missile attacks have targeted the port of Odesa and the region's river ports, which are being used as alternative routes.

The head of the Ukrainian president's office, Andriy Yermak, said the city of Izmail was hit in the strikes. Izmail is on the Danube River that forms part of the Ukraine-Romania border. Video obtained by The Associated Press showed explosions and a large fire in the distance on the Danube, captured by fishermen in Romania, a NATO member, on the other side of the river.

Three Ukrainian ports along the Danube are currently operating. "The goal of the enemy was clearly the facilities of the ports and industrial infrastructure of the region," Ukraine's South operational command wrote in an update on Facebook. As a result of the attack, a fire broke out at industrial and port facilities, and a grain elevator was damaged.

Ukraine's air force intercepted 23 Shahed drones over the country overnight, mostly in Odesa and Kyiv, according to a morning update.

All 10 drones fired at Kyiv were intercepted, said Serhii Popko, the head of

French journalists call off strike

AP / Paris

Journalists at France's emblematic Sunday newspaper Le Journal du Dimanche ended a 40-day strike on Tuesday after unsuccessfully protesting the appointment of an editor-in-chief they denounce as a far-right supporter. It was the longest journalists' strike in France in decades.

The newspaper, also known as the JDD, was absent from newsstands for the sixth week in a row Sunday.

The newspaper's owner, the Legardere group, said the printed version would resume publication in mid-August. The journalists had denounced the appointment of Geoffroy Lejeune, known for his far-right political views, which they say is putting the editorial independence of the newspaper at risk.

Lejeune has openly supported far-right presidential candidate Eric Zemmour, a former TV pundit who run in France's April 2022 election, drawing fervent audiences with his anti-Islam, anti-immigration invective. Zemmour lost in the first round with 7% of the votes.

The newspaper's journalists' association (SDJ) said in a statement Tuesday that 94% of the staff decided to end the strike as the Lagardere group "remained deaf to our claims". The journalists had almost unanimously supported the strike when it began

Shohini Sinha, an Indian-

American, known for her work on counter-terrorism investigations, has been named the special agent in charge of the FBI's field office in Salt Lake City in the US state of Utah. Sinha, who most recently served as executive special assistant to the Director Headquarters in Washington DC was named the special agent in charge by FBI Director Christopher Wray, who highlighted Sinha's exceptional track record on counter-terrorism investigations and extensive experience within the agency. Having joined the FBI as a special agent back in 2001, Sinha has had a remarkable career. In 2009 she was transferred to the Counterterrorism Division in Washington, DC, where she took on the role of programme manager for Canada-based extraterritorial investigations, fostering collaboration with Canadian liaison officers based in Washington, DC, am official release said.

Demonstrating her adaptability and a keen interest in cutting-edge matters, Sinha made a strategic move to the cyber intrusion squad in early 2020. Sinha's exceptional performance and leadership qualities were recognised once again in 2021, when she was chosen to serve as the executive special assistant to the FBI Director in Washington, DC. In this pivotal role, she played an instrumental part in various high-level ini-

Kyiv City Administration. Numerous loud explosions were heard overnight as air defence systems were activated. Debris from felled drones hit three districts of the capital, damaging a nonresidential building, Popko said. "Russian terrorists have once again targeted ports, grain facilities and global food security," President Volodymyr Zelenskyy posted Wednesday morning on Telegram. "The world must respond." He confirmed that some drones hit their targets, with the most "significant damage" in the south of Ukraine. Wheat prices rose about 3 per cent and corn prices were up nearly 2 per cent on Wednesday following the new attacks, showing the continued volatility in world markets as Russia targets Ukraine's ports and agricultural infrastructure.

Ukraine is a major supplier of wheat, corn, vegetable oil and other agricultural products important to the Middle East, Africa and parts of Asia where people are struggling with high food prices and hunger.

Ukraine also can export by road and rail through Europe, but those routes are more costly than going by the Black Sea and have stirred divisions among nearby countries
