Ceinsys Tech reveals its new brand identity to emphasize its continued pursuit of enhancing possibilities for a brighter future.

January 04th, 2023, in Mumbai, India, Ceinsys Tech Limited unveiled its new corporate brand identity for its internal as well as external stakeholders. With over two decades of experience in providing specialized Geospatial, Enterprise, Mobility, Digital reality & Engineering services solutions to a global customer base, Ceinsys leverages technology and end-user insights to add value at each stage of customer engagement.

Prompted by accelerated company growth and a renewed corporate vision, the company undertook an extensive rebranding exercise four months back. This included a reimagined logo, a modernized visual identity, and a revamping of its digital strategy. The new identity features its new slogan "Enhancing Possibilities," which portrays the firm's distinct culture and almost two decades of success in cooperation with numerous renowned companies. It embodies the organization's mission to uncover new opportunities and empower favorable outcomes through insightful thinking and an enriched outlook.

Mr. Prashant Kamat, Vice Chairman & CEO of Ceinsys said, "Our legacy of inspiring & enabling businesses to shape a brighter future is energizing us to adopt a different, more inclusive approach towards the future. We see our new identity as a commitment to our customers: to expand our endeavors in conceptualizing, improving, forming, and fulfilling the possibilities presented by technological developments. Our new identity represents a force multiplier that emphasizes our greater multiplied focus on exploring the better in everything for our clients and partners"
