SR Industries Emerges Stronger Post-CIRP with Strategic Leadership Overhaul

New Delhi, May 5, 2025: SR Industries Ltd., a legacy name synonymous with quality and reliability in India's footwear manufacturing landscape, has announced a strategic transformation in its leadership structure—signalling a new chapter of growth, accountability, and forward-focused governance.

Having successfully emerged from the Corporate Insolvency Resolution Process (CIRP), the company is now poised to strengthen its business fundamentals and pursue long-term value creation under a refreshed and professionally driven leadership team.

The new management team combines seasoned and emerging professionals with expertise across manufacturing, design, marketing, and strategy—reinforcing SR Industries' commitment to excellence, governance, and transparency.

“Our focus now is on building a resilient, future-ready organization driven by performance, governance, and agility. We are aligning our systems, talent, and strategy to ensure SR is positioned not only to compete—but to lead—in an ever-evolving global environment.”—Mr. Pankaj Dawar, Managing Director, SR Industries.

Building on its legacy of reliability and manufacturing excellence, SR Industries is modernizing its internal systems and streamlining operations. The new leadership team has outlined a clear roadmap focused on investments in technology, product development, and sustainability—ensuring alignment with both global and domestic market demands.
