No one should be targeted for not knowing Marathi: Fadnavis

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
Mumbai, July 4

MAHARASHTRA CHIEF MINISTER Devendra Fadnavis on Friday said no one in the state should be targeted for not knowing Marathi and warned that violence in the name of language would not be tolerated. The CM's statement came days after workers of the Raj Thackeray-led Maharashtra Navnirman Sena (MNS) assaulted a shopkeeper in Mira-Bhayandar in Thane district for not speaking in Marathi. A video of the June 29 incident went viral, triggering public backlash. An FIR was registered on Tuesday and the police have identified at least three people seen in the video, all of whom are MNS workers.

Maharashtra CM Devendra Fadnavis enters the Assembly to attend the Monsoon Session on Friday

"Pride in Marathi in Maharashtra is of utmost importance. But we will not tolerate hooliganism and violence in the name of language. The police have filed an FIR in the case, and action has been taken. In the future, if anyone tries to take the law into their own hands, they will face action. We are proud of Marathi, but no other Indian language will be insulted," Fadnavis told reporters outside the Assembly. The CM said 51% of Marathis in the state had voted for the Mahayuti alliance, and no one should "claim monopoly on the Marathi population". Traders should not be targeted for not knowing Marathi, he said, adding that Marathi businessmen in other states might also not know the local language there. "We can urge them (businessmen and others) to learn Marathi, but we cannot be obstinate about it. It won't be proper. We live in India. We cannot be so conservative."

Fadnavis's remarks came a day after his administration issued a resolution announcing that October 3 would be celebrated annually as "Classical Marathi Language Day", following the Centre's decision last year to confer the classical language status on Marathi. The government also said that October 3 to 9 would be marked as "Classical Marathi Language Week" each year.

The CM's warning that violence on the language issue would not be tolerated came a day before the Shiv Sena (UBT) and MNS are set to hold a joint victory rally in Mumbai to celebrate the state government's rollback of two resolutions on a contentious three-language policy that inducted Hindi as the third language in primary schools. This will be the first joint rally of Thackeray cousins Uddhav and Raj since the latter broke away from the Shiv Sena in 2005 and floated the MNS.

Tax relief for UPS ReNew promoters...

THE UPS PROVIDES an assured pension of 50% of the last drawn salary (average basic pay of the last 12 months of service) upon superannuation for all staff completing a minimum of 25 years of service, with the value of such deferred compensation fully indexed to inflation. Under NPS, tax exemption is available for withdrawals up to 25% of the self-contribution during service. With the latest decision, this can now be availed under UPS also to meet exigencies. Those under the old income tax regime can now claim tax deduction up to ₹50,000 under section 80 CCD(1B) over and above the overall ceiling of ₹1.5 lakh under Sec 80CCE. Similarly, old tax regime also allows claim up to 20% of pay (employer share 10% and employee share 10%) as tax deduction under section 80 CCD subject to overall ceiling of ₹1.5 lakh under section 80CCE. Under new tax regime, one can claim only employer's (govt's) contribution of 14% of pay as tax deduction for pension, sources said.

The government's contribution has been raised from the current 14% (under the market-linked NPS) to 18.5%. In the past one month, the government has extended several benefits to staff switching to UPS from NPS, including extending benefits of the old pension scheme in the event of death of government employees or his discharge from service on account of invalidation or disablement. The Centre has also extended the benefit of retirement gratuity and death gratuity to staff under UPS. Of the 2.7 million central government staff enrolled under NPS, just around 1% have switched to UPS so far. This has forced the government to extend the deadline for switching to UPS by three months till September 30, 2025. The government staff are seeking redressal of grievances, including immediate pension for central paramilitary force personnel who retire early and the return of pension corpus for staff quitting service before completing 10 years of mandatory service for pension, sources said.

"OUR DUE DILIGENCE investigation has allowed us to assess the performance of the company and its outlook and refine our view on valuation. On that basis, the consortium is prepared to increase its offer price to $8.00 per share, payable in cash, for the entire issued and to be issued share capital of the company not already owned by the members of the consortium," the consortium said in a mail to the company. "The revised bid represents an increase of $0.93 per share, equivalent to 13.2%, from the initial non-binding proposal dated December 10, ReNew said in the release. The final non-binding offer represents a 26.2% premium versus the undisturbed share price of $6.34 as on December 10, 2024, and a 38.9% premium compared to the 30-day volume-weighted average price of $5.76 per share. The ReNew board has already formed a special committee led by Manoj Singh, the lead independent director, and having six independent non-executive directors to consider the proposals received from the consortium. The special committee is in the process of evaluating the final non-binding offer alongside its financial adviser, Rothschild & Co and legal counsel, Linklaters said. "Active discussions with the consortium remain ongoing and the special committee will provide an update to the market as soon as reasonably practicable," it said.

No one should be targeted for not knowing Marathi: Fadnavis

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
Mumbai, July 4

MAHARASHTRA CHIEF MINISTER Devendra Fadnavis on Friday said no one in the state should be targeted for not knowing Marathi and warned that violence in the name of language would not be tolerated. The CM's statement came days after workers of the Raj Thackeray-led Maharashtra Navnirman Sena (MNS) assaulted a shopkeeper in Mira-Bhayandar in Thane district for not speaking in Marathi. A video of the June 29 incident went viral, triggering public backlash. An FIR was registered on Tuesday and the police have identified at least three people seen in the video, all of whom are MNS workers.

The CM said 51% of Marathis in the state had voted for the Mahayuti alliance, and no one should "claim monopoly

The CM's warning that violence on the language issue would not be tolerated came a day before the Shiv Sena (UBT) and MNS are set to hold a joint victory rally in Mumbai to celebrate the state government's rollback of two resolutions on a contentious three-language policy that inducted Hindi as the third language in primary schools. This will be the first joint rally of Thackeray cousins Uddhav and Raj since the latter broke away from the Shiv Sena in 2005 and floated the MNS.

Under NPS, tax exemption is available for withdrawals up to 25% of the self-contribution during service. With the latest decision, this can now be availed under UPS also to meet exigencies. Those under the old income tax regime can now claim tax deduction up to ₹50,000 under section 80 CCD(1B) over and above the overall ceiling of ₹1.5 lakh under Sec 80 CCE. Similarly, old tax regime also allows claim up to 20% of pay (employer share 10% and employee share 10%) as tax deduction under section 80 CCD subject to overall ceiling of ₹1.5 lakh under section 80 CCE. Under new tax regime, one can claim only employer's (govt's) contribution of 14% of pay as tax deduction for NPS. This facility, too, has now been extended to the UPS.

The government's contribution has been raised from the current 14% (under the market-linked NPS) to 18.5%. In the past one month, the government has extended several benefits to staff switching to UPS from NPS, including extending benefits of the old pension scheme in the event of death of government employees or his discharge from service on account of invalidation or disablement. The Centre has also extended the benefit of retirement gratuity and death gratuity to staff under UPS. Of the 2.7 million central government staff enrolled under NPS, just around 1% have switched to UPS so far. This has forced the government to extend the deadline for switching to UPS by three months till September 30, 2025.

The government staff are seeking redressal of grievances, including immediate pension for central paramilitary force personnel who retire early and the return of pension corpus for staff quitting service before completing 10 years of mandatory service for pension, sources said.

price of $6.34 as on December 10, 2024, and a 38.9% premium compared to the 30-day volume-weighted average price of $5.76 per share. The ReNew board has already formed a special committee led by Manoj Singh, the lead independent director, and having six independent non-executive directors to consider the proposals received from the consortium. The special committee is in the process of evaluating the final non-binding offer alongside its financial adviser, Rothschild & Co and legal counsel, Linklaters said. "Active discussions with the consortium remain ongoing and the special committee will provide an update to the market as soon as reasonably practicable," it said.

Under UPS, the employee contribution is 10% (of basic pay

No one should be targeted for not knowing Marathi: Fadnavis

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
Mumbai, July 4

MAHARASHTRA CHIEF MINISTER Devendra Fadnavis on Friday said no one in the state should be targeted for not knowing Marathi and warned that violence in the name of language would not be tolerated. The CM's statement came days after workers of the Raj Thackeray-led Maharashtra Navnirman Sena (MNS) assaulted a shopkeeper in Mira-Bhayandar in Thane district for not speaking in Marathi. A video of the June 29 incident went viral, triggering public backlash. An FIR was registered on Tuesday and the police have identified at least three people seen in the video, all of whom are MNS workers.

Maharashtra CM Devendra Fadnavis enters the Assembly to attend the Monsoon Session on Friday

"Pride in Marathi in Maharashtra is of utmost importance. But we will not tolerate hooliganism and violence in the name of language. The police have filed an FIR in the case, and action has been taken. In the future, if anyone tries to take the law into their own hands, they will face action. We are proud of Marathi, but no other Indian language will be insulted," Fadnavis told reporters outside the Assembly.

The CM said 51% of Marathis in the state had voted for the Mahayuti alliance, and no one should "claim monopoly on the Marathi population". Traders should not be targeted for not knowing Marathi, he said, adding that Marathi businessmen in other states might also not know the local language there. "We can urge them (businessmen and others) to learn Marathi, but we cannot be obstinate about it. It won't be proper. We live in India. We cannot be so conservative."

Fadnavis's remarks came a day after his administration issued a resolution announcing that October 3 would be celebrated annually as "Classical Marathi Language Day", following the Centre's decision last year to confer the classical language status on Marathi. The government also said that October 3 to 9 would be marked as "Classical Marathi Language Week" each year.

The CM's warning that violence on the language issue would not be tolerated came a day before the Shiv Sena (UBT) and MNS are set to hold a joint victory rally in Mumbai to celebrate the state government's rollback of two resolutions on a contentious three-language policy that inducted Hindi as the third language in primary schools. This will be the first joint rally of Thackeray cousins Uddhav and Raj since the latter broke away from the Shiv Sena in 2005 and floated the MNS.

Tax relief for UPS ReNew promoters...

THE UPS PROVIDES an assured pension of 50% of the last drawn salary (average basic pay of the last 12 months of service) upon superannuation for all staff completing a minimum of 25 years of service, with the value of such deferred compensation fully indexed to inflation. Under NPS, tax exemption is available for withdrawals up to 25% of the self-contribution during service. With the latest decision, this can now be availed under UPS also to meet exigencies. Those under the old income tax regime can now claim tax deduction up to ₹50,000 under section 80 CCD(1B) over and above the overall ceiling of ₹1.5 lakh under Sec 80CCE. Similarly, old tax regime also allows claim up to 20% of pay (employer share 10% and employee share 10%) as tax deduction under section 80 CCD subject to overall ceiling of ₹1.5 lakh under section 80CCE. Under new tax regime, one can claim only employer's (govt's) contribution of 14% of pay as tax deduction for NPS. This facility, too, has now been extended to the UPS.

The government's contribution has been raised from the current 14% (under the market-linked NPS) to 18.5%. In the past one month, the government has extended several benefits to staff switching to UPS from NPS, including extending benefits of the old pension scheme in the event of death of government employees or his discharge from service on account of invalidation or disablement. The Centre has also extended the benefit of retirement gratuity and death gratuity to staff under UPS. Of the 2.7 million central government staff enrolled under NPS, just around 1% have switched to UPS so far. This has forced the government to extend the deadline for switching to UPS by three months till September 30, 2025.

The government staff are seeking redressal of grievances, including immediate pension for central paramilitary force personnel who retire early and the return of pension corpus for staff quitting service before completing 10 years of mandatory service for pension, sources said.

"OUR DUE DILIGENCE investigation has allowed us to assess the performance of the company and its outlook and refine our view on valuation. On that basis, the consortium is prepared to increase its offer price to $8.00 per share, payable in cash, for the entire issued and to be issued share capital of the company not already owned by the members of the consortium," the consortium said in a mail to the company. "The revised bid represents an increase of $0.93 per share, equivalent to 13.2%, from the initial non-binding proposal dated December 10," ReNew said in the release. The final non-binding offer represents a 26.2% premium versus the undisturbed share price of $6.34 as on December 10, 2024, and a 38.9% premium compared to the 30-day volume-weighted average price of $5.76 per share. The ReNew board has already formed a special committee led by Manoj Singh, the lead independent director, and having six independent non-executive directors to consider the proposals received from the consortium. The special committee is in the process of evaluating the final non-binding offer alongside its financial adviser, Rothschild & Co and legal counsel, Linklaters said. "Active discussions with the consortium remain ongoing and the special committee will provide an update to the market as soon as reasonably practicable," it said.

No one should be targeted for not knowing Marathi: Fadnavis

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
Mumbai, July 4

MAHARASHTRA CHIEF MINISTER Devendra Fadnavis on Friday said no one in the state should be targeted for not knowing Marathi and warned that violence in the name of language would not be tolerated. The CM's statement came days after workers of the Raj Thackeray-led Maharashtra Navnirman Sena (MNS) assaulted a shopkeeper in Mira-Bhayandar in Thane district for not speaking in Marathi. A video of the June 29 incident went viral, triggering public backlash. An FIR was registered on Tuesday and the police have identified at least three people seen in the video, all of whom are MNS workers.

Maharashtra CM Devendra Fadnavis enters the Assembly to attend the Monsoon Session on Friday

case, and action has been taken. In the future, if anyone tries to take the law into their own hands, they will face action. We are proud of Marathi, but no other Indian language will be insulted," Fadnavis told reporters outside the Assembly. The CM said 51% of Marathis in the state had voted for the Mahayuti alliance, and no one should "claim monopoly

Fadnavis's remarks came a day after his administration issued a resolution announcing that October 3 would be celebrated annually as "Classical Marathi Language Day", following the Centre's decision last year to confer the classical language status on Marathi. The government also said that October 3 to 9 would be marked as "Classical Marathi Language Week" each year.

The CM's warning that violence would not be tolerated came a day before the Shiv Sena (UBT) and MNS are set to hold a joint victory rally in Mumbai to celebrate the state government's rollback of two resolutions on a contentious three-language policy that inducted Hindi as the third language in primary schools. This will be the first joint rally of Thackeray cousins Uddhav and Raj since the latter broke away from the Shiv Sena in 2005 and floated the MNS.

Tax relief for UPS ReNew promoters...

THE UPS PROVIDES an assured pension of 50% of the last drawn salary (average basic pay of the last 12 months of service) upon superannuation for all staff completing a minimum of 25 years of service, with the value of such deferred compensation fully indexed to inflation. Under NPS, tax exemption is available for withdrawals up to 25% of the self-contribution during service. With the latest decision, this can now be availed under UPS also to meet exigencies. Those under the old income tax regime can now claim tax deduction up to ₹50,000 under section 80 CCD(1B) over and above the overall ceiling of ₹1.5 lakh under Sec 80 CCE. Similarly, old tax regime also allows claim up to 20% of pay (employer share 10% and employee share 10%) as tax deduction under section 80 CCD subject to overall ceiling of ₹1.5 lakh under section 80 CCE. Under new tax regime, one can claim only employer's (govt's) contribution of 14% of pay as tax deduction for NPS. This facility, too, has now been extended to the UPS.

The government's contribution has been raised from the current 14% (under the market-linked NPS) to 18.5%. In the past one month, the government has extended several benefits to staff switching to UPS from NPS, including extending benefits of the old pension scheme in the event of death of government employees or his discharge from service on account of invalidation or disablement. The Centre has also extended the benefit of retirement gratuity and death gratuity to staff under UPS. Of the 2.7 million central government staff enrolled under NPS, just around 1% have switched to UPS so far. This has forced the government to extend the deadline for switching to UPS by three months till September 30, 2025. No one should be targeted for not knowing Marathi: Fadnavis

Mumbai, July 4

MAHARASHTRA CHIEF MINISTER Devendra Fadnavis on Friday said no one in the state should be targeted for not knowing Marathi and warned that violence in the name of language would not be tolerated. The CM's statement came days after workers of the Raj Thackeray-led Maharashtra Navnirman Sena (MNS) assaulted a shopkeeper in Mira-Bhayandar in Thane district for not speaking in Marathi. A video of the June 29 incident went viral, triggering public backlash. An FIR was registered on Tuesday and the police have identified at least three people seen in the video, all of whom are MNS workers.

Maharashtra CM Devendra Fadnavis enters the Assembly to attend the Monsoon Session on Friday. SANKHADEEP BANERJEE

case, and action has been taken. In the future, if anyone tries to take the law into their own hands, they will face action. We are proud of Marathi, but no other Indian language will be insulted," Fadnavis told reporters outside the Assembly. The CM said 51% of Marathis in the state had voted for the Mahayuti alliance, and no one should "claim monopoly on the Marathi population". Traders should not be targeted for not knowing Marathi, he said, adding that Marathi businessmen in other states might also not know the local language there. "We can urge them (businessmen and others) to learn Marathi, but we cannot be obstinate about it. It won't be proper. We live in India. We cannot be so conservative."

Fadnavis's remarks came a day after his administration issued a resolution announcing that October 3 would be celebrated annually as "Classical Marathi Language Day", following the Centre's decision last year to confer the classical language status on Marathi. The government also said that October 3 to 9 would be marked as "Classical Marathi Language Week" each year.

The CM's warning that violence on the language issue would not be tolerated came a day before the Shiv Sena (UBT) and MNS are set to hold a joint victory rally in Mumbai to celebrate the state government's rollback of two resolutions on a contentious three-language policy that inducted Hindi as the third language in primary schools. This will be the first joint rally of Thackeray cousins Uddhav and Raj since the latter broke away from the Shiv Sena in 2005 and floated the MNS.

Tax relief for UPS ReNew promoters...

THE UPS PROVIDES an assured pension of 50% of the last drawn salary (average basic pay of the last 12 months of service) upon superannuation for all staff completing a minimum of 25 years of service, with the value of such deferred compensation fully indexed to inflation. Under NPS, tax exemption is available for withdrawals up to 25% of the self-contribution during service. With the latest decision, this can now be availed under UPS also to meet exigencies. Those under the old income tax regime can now claim tax deduction up to ₹50,000 under section 80 CCD(1B) over and above the overall ceiling of ₹1.5 lakh under Sec 80 CCE. Similarly, old tax regime also allows claim up to 20% of pay (employer share 10% and employee share 10%) as tax deduction under section 80 CCD subject to overall ceiling of ₹1.5 lakh under section 80 CCE. Under new tax regime, one can claim only employer's (govt's) contribution of 14% of pay as tax deduction for NPS. This facility, too, has now been extended to the UPS. Under UPS, the employee contribution is 10% (of basic pay + DA). The government's contribution has been raised from the current 14% (under the market-linked NPS) to 18.5%. In the past one month, the government has extended several benefits to staff switching to UPS from NPS, including extending benefits of the old pension scheme in the event of death of government employees or his discharge from service on account of invalidation or disablement. The Centre has also extended the benefit of retirement gratuity and death gratuity to staff under UPS. Of the 2.7 million central government staff enrolled under NPS, just around 1% have switched to UPS so far. This has forced the government to extend the deadline for switching to UPS by three months till September 30, 2025. The government staff are seeking redressal of grievances, including immediate pension for central paramilitary force personnel who retire early and the return of pension corpus for staff quitting service before completing 10 years of mandatory service for pension, sources said.

"OUR DUE DILIGENCE investigation has allowed us to assess the performance of the company and its outlook and refine our view on valuation. On that basis, the consortium is prepared to increase its offer price to $8.00 per share, payable in cash, for the entire issued and to be issued share capital of the company not already owned by the members of the consortium," the consortium said in a mail to the company. "The revised bid represents an increase of $0.93 per share, equivalent to 13.2%, from the initial non-binding proposal dated December 10," ReNew said in the release. The final non-binding offer represents a 26.2% premium versus the undisturbed share price of $6.34 as on December 10, 2024, and a 38.9% premium compared to the 30-day volume-weighted average price of $5.76 per share. The ReNew board has already formed a special committee led by Manoj Singh, the lead independent director, and having six independent non-executive directors to consider the proposals received from the consortium. The special committee is in the process of evaluating the final non-binding offer alongside its financial adviser, Rothschild & Co and legal counsel, Linklaters said. "Active discussions with the consortium remain ongoing and the special committee will provide an update to the market as soon as reasonably practicable," it said.

No one should be targeted for not knowing Marathi: Fadnavis

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
Mumbai, July 4

MAHARASHTRA CHIEF MINISTER Devendra Fadnavis on Friday said no one in the state should be targeted for not knowing Marathi and warned that violence in the name of language would not be tolerated. The CM's statement came days after workers of the Raj Thackeray-led Maharashtra Navnirman Sena (MNS) assaulted a shopkeeper in Mira-Bhayandar in Thane district for not speaking in Marathi. A video of the June 29 incident went viral, triggering public backlash. An FIR was registered on Tuesday and the police have identified at least three people seen in the video, all of whom are MNS workers.

Maharashtra CM Devendra Fadnavis enters the Assembly to attend the Monsoon Session on Friday

case, and action has been taken. In the future, if anyone tries to take the law into their own hands, they will face action. We are proud of Marathi, but no other Indian language will be insulted," Fadnavis told reporters outside the Assembly. The CM said 51% of Marathi in the state had voted for the Mahayuti alliance, and no one should "claim monopoly on the Marathi population". Traders should not be targeted for not knowing Marathi, he said, adding that Marathi businessmen in other states might also not know the local language there. "We can urge them (businessmen and others) to learn Marathi, but we cannot be obstinate about it. It won't be proper. We live in India. We cannot be so conservative."

Fadnavis's remarks came a day after his administration issued a resolution announcing that October 3 would be celebrated annually as "Classical Marathi Language Day", following the Centre's decision last year to confer the classical language status on Marathi. The government also said that October 3 to 9 would be marked as "Classical Marathi Language Week" each year.

The CM's warning that violence on the language issue would not be tolerated came a day before the Shiv Sena (UBT) and MNS are set to hold a joint victory rally in Mumbai to celebrate the state government's rollback of two resolutions on a contentious three-language policy that inducted Hindi as the third language in primary schools. This will be the first joint rally of Thackeray cousins Uddhav and Raj since the latter broke away from the Shiv Sena in 2005 and floated the MNS.

Tax relief for UPS ReNew promoters...

THE UPS PROVIDES an assured pension of 50% of the last drawn salary (average basic pay of the last 12 months of service) upon superannuation for all staff completing a minimum of 25 years of service, with the value of such deferred compensation fully indexed to inflation. Under NPS, tax exemption is available for withdrawals up to 25% of the self-contribution during service. With the latest decision, this can now be availed under UPS also to meet exigencies. Those under the old income tax regime can now claim tax deduction up to ₹50,000 under section 80 CCD(1B) over and above the overall ceiling of ₹1.5 lakh under Sec 80 CCE. Similarly, old tax regime also allows claim up to 20% of pay (employer share 10% and employee share 10%) as tax deduction under section 80 CCD subject to overall ceiling of ₹1.5 lakh under section 80 CCE. Under new tax regime, one can claim only employer's (govt's) contribution of 14% of pay as tax deduction for NPS. This facility, too, has now been extended to the UPS.

Under UPS, the employee contribution is 10% (of basic pay + DA). The government's contribution has been raised from the current 14% (under the market-linked NPS) to 18.5%. In the past one month, the government has extended several benefits to staff switching to UPS from NPS, including extending benefits of the old pension scheme in the event of death of government employees or his discharge from service on account of invalidation or disablement. The Centre has also extended the benefit of retirement gratuity and death gratuity to staff under UPS. Of the 2.7 million central government staff enrolled under NPS, just around 1% have switched to UPS so far. This has forced the government to extend the deadline for switching to UPS by three months till September 30, 2025. The government staff are seeking redressal of grievances, including immediate pension for central paramilitary force personnel who retire early and the return of pension corpus for staff quitting service before completing 10 years of mandatory service for pension, sources said.

"OUR DUE DILIGENCE investigation has allowed us to assess the performance of the company and its outlook and refine our view on valuation. On that basis, the consortium is prepared to increase its offer price to $8.00 per share, payable in cash, for the entire issued and to be issued share capital of the company not already owned by the members of the consortium," the consortium said in a mail to the company. "The revised bid represents an increase of $0.93 per share, equivalent to 13.2%, from the initial non-binding proposal dated December 10," ReNew said in the release. The final non-binding offer represents a 26.2% premium versus the undisturbed share price of $6.34 as on December 10, 2024, and a 38.9% premium compared to the 30-day volume-weighted average price of $5.76 per share. The ReNew board has already formed a special committee led by Manoj Singh, the lead independent director, and having six independent non-executive directors to consider the proposals received from the consortium. The special committee is in the process of evaluating the final non-binding offer alongside its financial adviser, Rothschild & Co and legal counsel, Linklaters said. "Active discussions with the consortium remain ongoing and the special committee will provide an update to the market as soon as reasonably practicable," it said.

No one should be targeted for not knowing Marathi: Fadnavis

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
Mumbai, July 4

MAHARASHTRA CHIEF MINISTER Devendra Fadnavis on Friday said no one in the state should be targeted for not knowing Marathi and warned that violence in the name of language would not be tolerated. The CM's statement came days after workers of the Raj Thackeray-led Maharashtra Navnirman Sena (MNS) assaulted a shopkeeper in Mira-Bhayandar in Thane district for not speaking in Marathi. A video of the June 29 incident went viral, triggering public backlash. An FIR was registered on Tuesday and the police have identified at least three people seen in the video, all of whom are MNS workers.

Maharashtra CM Devendra Fadnavis enters the Assembly to attend the Monsoon Session on Friday

case, and action has been taken. In the future, if anyone tries to take the law into their own hands, they will face action. We are proud of Marathi, but no other Indian language will be insulted," Fadnavis told reporters outside the Assembly. The CM said 51% of Marathis in the state had voted for the Mahayuti alliance, and no one should "claim monopoly

Fadnavis's remarks came a day after his administration issued a resolution announcing that October 3 would be celebrated annually as "Classical Marathi Language Day", following the Centre's decision last year to confer the classical language status on Marathi. The government also said that October 3 to 9 would be marked as "Classical Marathi Language Week" each year.

The CM's warning that violence on the language issue would not be tolerated came a day before the Shiv Sena (UBT) and MNS are set to hold a joint victory rally in Mumbai to celebrate the state government's rollback of two resolutions on a contentious three-language policy that inducted Hindi as the third language in primary schools. This will be the first joint rally of Thackeray cousins Uddhav and Raj since the latter broke away from the Shiv Sena in 2005 and floated the MNS.

Tax relief for UPS ReNew promoters...

THE UPS PROVIDES an assured pension of 50% of the last drawn salary (average basic pay of the last 12 months of service) upon superannuation for all staff completing a minimum of 25 years of service, with the value of such deferred compensation fully indexed to inflation. Under NPS, tax exemption is available for withdrawals up to 25% of the self-contribution during service. With the latest decision, this can now be availed under UPS also to meet exigencies. Those under the old income tax regime can now claim tax deduction up to ₹50,000 under section 80 CCD(1B) over and above the overall ceiling of ₹1.5 lakh under Sec 80 CCE. Similarly, old tax regime also allows claim up to 20% of pay (employer share 10% and employee share 10%) as tax deduction under section 80 CCD subject to overall ceiling of ₹1.5 lakh under section 80 CCE. Under new tax regime, one can claim only employer's (govt's) contribution of 14% of pay as tax deduction for NPS. This facility, too, has now been extended to the UPS.

The government's contribution has been raised from the current 14% (under the market-linked NPS) to 18.5%. In the past one month, the government has extended several benefits to staff switching to UPS from NPS, including extending benefits of the old pension scheme in the event of death of government employees or his discharge from service on account of invalidation or disablement. The Centre has also extended the benefit of retirement gratuity and death gratuity to staff under UPS. Of the 2.7 million central government staff enrolled under NPS, just around 1% have switched to UPS so far. This has forced the government to extend the deadline for switching to UPS by three months till September 30, 2025. The government staff are seeking redressal of grievances, including immediate pension for central paramilitary force personnel who retire early and the return of pension corpus for staff quitting service before completing 10 years of mandatory service for pension, sources said.

"OUR DUE DILIGENCE investigation has allowed us to assess the performance of the company and its outlook and refine our view on valuation. On that basis, the consortium is prepared to increase its offer price to $8.00 per share, payable in cash, for the entire issued and to be issued share capital of the company not already owned by the members of the consortium," the consortium said in a mail to the company. "The revised bid represents an increase of $0.93 per share, equivalent to 13.2%, from the initial non-binding proposal dated December 10," ReNew said in the release. The final non-binding offer represents a 26.2% premium versus the undisturbed share price of $6.34 as on December 10, 2024, and a 38.9% premium compared to the 30-day volume-weighted average price of $5.76 per share. The ReNew board has already formed a special committee led by Manoj Singh, the lead independent director, and having six independent non-executive directors to consider the proposals received from the consortium. The special committee is in the process of evaluating the final non-binding offer alongside its financial adviser, Rothschild & Co and legal counsel, Linklaters said. "Active discussions with the consortium remain ongoing and the special committee will provide an update to the market as soon as reasonably practicable," it said.
