Business Update

TACL along with its JV's secures multi-year orders worth over Rs. 1,000 Crore

- Includes order worth ~Rs. 100 crores for EV segment
- Includes order worth ~Rs. 700 crores for Exports

Haryana, 6th February 2026

Talbro's Automotive Components Limited (TACL), along with its JV's has received orders worth over Rs. 1,000 crores for both domestic and exports market from the leading OEMs. These orders are to be executed over the period of next 5 years. These include orders from all the company's product lines like gaskets, heat shields, forging components, hoses & anti-vibration parts and chassis components. The commercialization for these products will start from FY27.

- Secured orders worth ~Rs. 250 crores (includes ~Rs. 110 crores of exports) from the sealing business of gaskets and heat shield products
- Secured export orders of ~Rs. 500 crores in the forgings business. A significant portion of these orders is from a newly onboarded customer – a major European based global automotive component supplier
- Secured export orders of ~Rs. 90 crore through the JV, Marelli Talbro's Chassis Systems, for BIW components from a multinational automobile manufacturer producing luxury vehicles and SUVs. These orders cater to the EV segment.
- Secured orders through the JV, Talbro's Marugo Rubber worth ~Rs. 170 crores in the domestic market for products like Hoses and Anti-vibration parts.

The company is deepening its footprint in a highly competitive and demanding market of Europe. This expansion not only demonstrates the company's capability to meet global benchmarks but also positions it as a reliable supplier within the European automotive ecosystem. As a result, the company is gaining market share in this region.

These orders will help further enhance the company's revenue visibility and improve profitability. These orders from highly specialized auto markets and customers greatly signify the capabilities developed by TACL and its JV companies.
