About Advait Energy Transitions Ltd:

- ▶ Incorporated in 2010, AETL is an emerging company focused into Power Transmission Solution & energy Transitions Sector. It is a first-generation company founded by Mr. Shalin Sheth, a mechanical engineer by qualification. He brings with him extensive experience in power transmission, substation systems, and power generation, having worked with leading organizations such as Adani Power and Kalpataru Power, and collaborated closely with prominent power consultants in India and across global markets.
- ▶ The PTS division is engaged in businesses spanning OPGW, ACS Wires, OFC, ERS (Make in India), Stringing Tools, RDSS (EPC) Projects, and HTLS Re-conductoring (EPC) Projects. The NRE division is engaged in businesses of Solar EPC, Battery Energy Storage System, Green Hydrogen EPC and Carbon Markets. In Q2FY26, the company achieved an outstanding order book of ₹1,070 Cr, marking 177% YoY growth from Q2FY25. The PTS division constituted 76% of the order book, with the NRE division contributing 24%.
- ▶ They are a company that is highly focused in the journey of Energy Transition. They continue to offer innovate product solution in PTS with focus on import substitution, expanding and enriching our market share by providing EPC solution across country and continuously exploring tying up with global technology partners and doing manufacturing of those niche segment products in India under the NRE division.
