Q3 & 9MFY26 Management Commentary

Mr. B.L. Agrawal
Chairman and Managing Director

"I am pleased to share that 9MFY26 reflected steady performance with revenues remaining resilient and EBITDA and PAT margins at 22% and 14%, respectively, despite softer realizations. During the period, we made meaningful progress on key strategic initiatives, including securing Environmental Clearance (EC) to more than double the capacity of the Ari Dongri mines, commencement of commercial operations at the new 2 MnT pellet plant, continued progress toward expanding solar power capacity to 540 MW, advancement of the 0.7 MnT CRM Complex, and plans for a 20 GWh Battery Energy Storage project. Backed by the competitive advantage of captive iron ore mines, a strong net cash position, on going capacity expansion, and a firm ESG commitment, we remain well positioned for sustainable value creation driven by efficiency gains and solar-led cost optimisation."

International & Domestic Tailwinds

International Market

Global iron ore prices have remained within a range of $95 to $110 per ton so far this year, currently hovering around $102/t. The first half of the year was supported by weather related production losses. The increased supply might put a lid on iron ore prices.

China's steel consumption has now officially peaked, and will be in gradual decline. In near term China has announced stimulus measures to boost consumption—including direct cash transfers. This will lend some demand support. The global iron ore market is at a pivotal juncture with rising supply and changing demand pattern. The much-awaited Guinea's Simandou project has commenced operations in Nov'25. It is expected to export 5-10Mnt in 2026. Infrastructure development is going slow, so ramp up to 100Mnt might take longer. In 2026 ore prices are expected to range between US$90–105/t, averaging around US$97–98/t.

Domestic Market

Iron ore prices (NMDC – Fines 64Fe) have been range bound except seasonal variation between Rs4500-5500/t. The current quote of Rs. 3,900 per ton reflects the revised pricing structure, with prices now announced exclusive of statutory levies such as royalty, DMF, and NMET, effective January 2026.

Iron ore pellet prices have followed the same trend and has traded within a narrow band of Rs.8500 to Rs. 10,000 per/t YTD, with current levels around Rs. 10,150/t. Same trend to continue for remaining FY26.

According to the World Steel Association, India's steel demand is expected to maintain strong momentum, growing steadily through 2026 and reaching nearly 75 MnT above 2020 levels, supported by broad-based expansion across steel-consuming sectors and enabled by robust infrastructure and construction growth. India's Budget 2026 earmarks Rs. 12.2 lakh crore for infrastructure capex, which is expected to significantly boost steel demand across core infrastructure and construction segments.
