Manipur clashes: Toll over 50, Army steps in to hold peace

SUKRITA BARUAH & JIMMY LEIVON
Imphal, May 6

(DGP), Manipur, had cited security reasons for the decision. In Churachandpur, seven of these deaths took place on Friday, including three in an alleged incident of security personnel opening fire on people who tried to block the evacuation of Meiteis from the area. According to the chief medical officer of Churachandpur District Hospital, 12 bodies have been brought to the mortuary since violence broke out on May 3, of which three were brought in following Friday evening's shooting. According to another senior doctor at the hospital, two others were critically injured in the incident, while four bodies were brought in earlier in the day. At the Regional Institute of Medical Sciences in Imphal West, 26 bodies, including two women, have been brought to the mortuary by security personnel during the course of the violence, senior hospital officials said. So far, only one body has been claimed by a family from Nambol in Bishnupur district. At the Jawaharlal Nehru Institute of Medical Sciences in Imphal East, two persons succumbed to their injuries in the hospital while 12 bodies were brought to the mortuary by security personnel from different districts. Not a single one has been claimed by their families, said senior hospital authorities. Among those who died in

The estimates are of three key hospitals. The state government or police have not released the official toll so far the alleged firing by security personnel in Churachandpur was 34-year-old Nianghoihching. According to her brother Lam Jacob, she had been working as a nurse on a contractual basis at Churachandpur District Hospital since 2021, after working at the Apollo hospital in Jasola, Delhi for eight years. "We were at home in the evening when all of a sudden we heard that the Army is trying to evacuate Meiteis from the area and that we have to block the road. Everyone started moving out to the road and so did she. I remained at home. Around 10-15 minutes after she left, we heard that she had been injured. Once she was taken to the hospital, we were told that she had died," Jacob said. According to Muan Hangsing (24), a researcher and resident of Churachandpur, the developments of the evening came at the end of a day of "uneasy calm" in the town. "Because of the Army deployment, no one dares to move around during the day. But around 7 pm, we got information that security vehicles are moving to evacuate Meitee people stranded in the town. We gathered at Tidim Road and barricaded it, with women at the forefront because we thought that the security personnel would not shoot at them," he said. Another 30-year-old resident who had gathered to barricade the road said that "the Meiteis are stuck here, while Kuki people are stuck in Imphal", and that until the safety of Kukis is ensured, locals did not want Meiteis to be evacuated from the area.
