AMCs launch new funds with overseas exposure to cut risk

URVASHI VALECHA Mumbai, December 7

AS THE EQUITY markets continue to hit new highs every week, mutual fund houses are looking for ways to diversify risk. One of the strategies adopted by the industry is to invest in global markets. Two new fund offers (NFOs) that opened for subscription last week will invest a part of the investible corpus in overseas stocks.

Axis Special Situations Fund and the Aditya Birla Sun Life ESG Fund, which opened for subscription last week, would be investing up to 30% and 35% of corpus in foreign equity markets. According to the fund houses, global equities as an asset class will help investors diversify their exposure to equities and help derisk the portfolio. Additionally, investing in foreign equities

These funds are being pitched as thematic funds having the potential to generate better returns because of diversification. There are many fund houses that are launching multi-asset funds and funds that invest in both Indian and foreign equities. This could become mainstream.
