"She's here," Becky Cummins shared on Instagram alongside a photo of their newborn daughter in her arms. "Our beautiful baby girl, Edi. Words can't describe how overjoyed and full of love we feel right now." The couple also shared the picture of Edi's first trip to the beach on their social media accounts. Cummins had previously expressed his desire to achieve a better balance between family life and professional cricket.

RANJI TROPHY | Big names Rahane, Suryakumar and Dube fail with the bat Kotian-Mulani rescue Mumbai

Mumbai's eternal crisis men Shams Mulani and Tanush Kotian once again stood tall amid ruins with a 165-run stand for the eighth wicket as the defending champion staged an impressive fightback to reach 278 for 8 against Haryana in the opening day of their Ranji Trophy quarter-

Having opted to bat, Mumbai batting unit comprising former Test vice-captain Ajinkya Rahane (31), T20I skipper Suryakumar Yadav batting all-rounder Shivam Dube (28) were down in the dumps at 113 for 7, largely due to some incisive bowling by the military medium trundlers from Haryana led by workhorse Anshul Kamboj (3/58 in 18

But once the moisture dried up, Eden strip became a batting paradise as usual with Mulani (91, 178 balls) and last year's 'Player of the Tournament' Kotian (85 batting, 154 balls) making full use of the loose deliveries.

While Mumbai might not end up positing a huge total but Mulani and Kotian have done enough to ensure that they have something to bowl at when Haryana come out to

The decision by Rahane to bat first was based on faith that they can see off the first but inexperienced opener Ayush Mhatre (0) was dismissed off the very first movement in and away from the batter pitching it between 4m to 6m length. Kamboj hit the good length on Mhatre got one that moved in and he was bowled through the gate. Sumit then had other opener Akash Anand, who wanted to leave the delivery from length but found it jagging back enough to dismantle the off stick.

Brief Scores: Mumbai 1st Innings: 278/8 in 81 overs (Shams Mulani 91, Tanush Kotian 85 batting, Ajinkya Rahane 31, Anshul Kamboj 3/58 in 18 overs).

Siddhesh Lad and Surva were also victims of that shade inward movement with no distinct footwork to cover the line of deliveries while skipper Rahane got a late outswinger from Kamboj.

The Haryana seamer doesn't bowl at express pace but is a sure-shot candidate for India A squad when it tours England late May, early June.

Dube after some big blows was snapped at gully and when Shardul closed his bat face to offer simple return catch to Thakral, Mumbai seemed to be heading for a paltry first innings total.

However Mulani and Kotian joined forces at a time when the pitch became easier for batting. Haryana seamers, who looked menacing when there was moisture underneath surface and some nip in the air suddenly looked pedestrian.

Dhekale drives Singams' charge

Riding on Dhekale's 31, Singams recovered from 24/4 to finish at 65

FPJ News Service

MUMBAI

Sumeet Dhekale played yet another captain's knock to bail Chennai Singams out against Tiigers of Kolkata in the Singams' penultimate league match of the Indian Street Premier League (ISPL) Season 2 at the Dadoji Konddev Stadium in Thane on Saturday.

Riding on Dhekale's quickfire 31 (17b, 5x4), Singams recovered from a precarious 24 for four to finish its essay at 65 for seven in its stipulated 10 overs. The Tiigers of Kolkata who continued to remain at the bottom of the points table - then chased down the target in six overs, losing one wicket.

Dhekale, the stylish southpaw, though gave a lesson of how raw power and aerial hitting is not the be-all and endall to succeed in cricket, especially tennis-ball cricket, as a batter. When the veteran batter - also a regular on Mumbai's maidan cricket circles - took guard in the fifth over, Singams were down to 24 for four. Shivam Kumar was the Kolkata outfit's star performer, having picked three wickets in the second over of the match.

Dhekale knew he could not afford to take too many risks. As a result, the captain preferred to look for gaps through the field rather than clearing the boundary ropes. His first four came in the seventh over, off Vivek Mohanan, which was the first boundary since Ketan Mhatre's twin blows in the opening over.

When Shivam returned into the attack in the last over over, Dhekale took charge and smashed consecutive fours.

Bench IV, Mumbal in Interlocutory Application No. 2769 of 2024 in C.P.(I.B.)/760(MB)/2021. In light of this, the auction process being carried out by Mr. Jitender Kumar Jain, whose term has expired, is questionable and may be invalid.

Objection to the Validity of the Auction: Given the above facts we formally object to the continuation of the E-auction process scheduled for 4th March 2025, under the supervision of Mr. Jitender Kumar Jain. It is our position that the auction, as currently being conducted, is illegal, as the Liquidator in question is no longer in a position of authority, rendering any transaction arising from this auction potentially void and subject to lega scrutiny.

Consequences for Purchasers: We caution any potential bidders or interested parties that any purchase made through the e-auction process will be done so after taking into account the facts outlined herein, including the suspension and termination of the Liquidator. Such purchasers will be bound by these facts and the legal consequences arising therefrom, including potential challenges to the validity of the auction and any subsequent transaction.

For any additional inquiries or further communication on this matter please contact. Date-07th February 2025. Sd/
