The company, which has a workforce of 11,000, has slowed hiring amid fears of an economic downturn.

"We have crossed $1 billion in revenue during 2021. Our fastest-growing market is India and close to it is the West Asia. Across the board, the growth rate has come down. The US is number 1, European Union number 2 and India is approaching number 3 for us. India can be number 2 in 4-5 years and number 1 in 10 years based on the rate at which it is growing," said Sridhar Vembu, chief executive officer (CEO) and co-founder, Zoho Corp.
