Modis Navnirman Limited successfully migrates to Main Board of NSE and BSE

Mumbai, India, November 14, 2025: Modis Navnirman Limited (BSE: 543539 | NSE: MODIS), one of Mumbai's fastest-growing and most promising real estate players in the redevelopment space, is pleased to announce its successful migration from the SME Platform to the Main Board of both the Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE) and the National Stock Exchange (NSE), effective November 14, 2025.

The company's 1,95,91,200 fully paid-up equity shares of ₹10 each will now be listed and admitted to dealings on the Capital Market Segment (Main Board) of both premier exchanges a significant milestone reflecting Modis Navnirman's growth trajectory, corporate governance, and investor confidence.

This migration marks a key step in Modis Navnirman's journey of expansion and market consolidation, opening new avenues for enhanced visibility, liquidity, and access to a wider base of institutional and retail investors. The transition also underlines the company's commitment to transparent reporting, strong financial discipline, and consistent value creation.

Management Comment:

Commenting on the milestone, Mr. Mahek Modi, Whole Time Director and Chief Financial Officer of Modis Navnirman Limited, said:

"The migration to the Main Board of both BSE and NSE is a proud moment for all of us at Modis Navnirman. It signifies the growing trust of our stakeholders and the maturity of our organization. This achievement reinforces our commitment to sustainable growth, operational excellence, and transparent governance. As we continue to scale new heights, we remain dedicated to delivering long-term value to our shareholders and contributing to Mumbai's redevelopment landscape."
