Day after plane crash in Georgia, Turkey says all 20 troops killed

ANKARA: All 20 personnel on board a military cargo plane that crashed in Georgia were killed, Turkey's defence minister announced on Wednesday.
The C-130 plane had taken off from Ganja, Azerbaijan and was on its way back to Turkiye when it crashed on Tuesday in Georgia's Signnaghi municipality, close to the Azerbaijani border.
A Turkish accident investigation team reached the crash site early on Wednesday and was inspecting the wreckage of the plane, in coordination with the Georgian authorities, the National Defence Ministry said.

Iraqi PM Mohammed Shia al-Sudani casts his vote AP

The wreckage was spread across a plain that includes farmland and is surrounded by hills, Turkish private broadcaster NTV reported from the site. Debris from the aircraft was scattered across multiple locations, the report said. "Our heroic comrades-in-arms were martyred," Defence Minister Yasar Guler said. AGENCIES

SPARKS CONCERNS OVER US INFLUENCE

Trump calls for pardon of Netanyahu in corruption cases

JERUSALEM: US President Donald Trump on Wednesday sent a letter to Israel's president asking him to pardon Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu in a long-running corruption trial that has bitterly divided the country.

It was the latest attempt by Trump to intervene in the case on behalf of Netanyahu, raising questions about undue American influence over internal Israeli affairs. Trump also called for a pardon for Netanyahu during a speech to Israel's parliament last month, when he made a brief visit to promote his ceasefire plan for the war in Gaza.

In Wednesday's letter to President Isaac Herzog, Trump called the corruption case "political, unjustified prosecution".

"As the Great State of Israel and the amazing Jewish People move past the terribly difficult times of the last three years, I hereby call on you to fully pardon Benjamin Netanyahu, who has been a formidable and decisive War Time Prime Minister, and is now leading Israel

Benjamin Netanyahu has rejected the allegations, and condemned the case as a witch hunt AP/PTI into a time of peace," Trump wrote.

Netanyahu is the only sitting prime minister in Israeli history to stand trial, after being charged with fraud, breach of trust and accepting bribes in three separate cases accusing him of exchanging favours with wealthy political supporters.

Netanyahu rejects the allegations, and in Trump-like language has condemned the case as a witch hunt orchestrated by the media, police and judiciary. Netanyahu has taken the stand multiple times over the past year, but the case has been repeatedly delayed as he has dealt with wars and unrest stemming from Hamas-led militant attacks of October 2023.

Israel's presidency is a largely ceremonial office, but the president does have the authority to grant pardons.

Historic shutdown comes to an end? US House to vote

WASHINGTON: The House of Representatives will try to end the longest government shutdown in US history on Wednesday, with a vote on a stopgap funding package to restart disrupted food assistance, pay hundreds of thousands of federal workers and revive a hobbled air-traffic control system. Republicans currently hold a narrow 219-213 majority in the House. But President Donald Trump's support for the bill is expected to keep his party together in the face of vehement opposition from House Democrats, who are angry that a long standoff launched by their Senate colleagues failed to secure a deal to extend federal health insurance subsidies. Eight Senate Democrats on Monday broke with party leadership to pass the funding package, which would extend funding through January 30, leaving the federal government on a path to keep adding about $1.8 trillion a year to its $38 trillion in debt. "My urgent plea is to think carefully, pray and finally do the right thing," Republican House Speaker Mike Johnson said. AGENCIES

Russia makes gains in Ukraine as it expands frontline attacks

Overruns three settlements in Zaporizhzhia

KYIV: The Russian army overran three settlements in the southern Zaporizhzhia region of Ukraine, Kyiv's top military commander said Wednesday, as Moscow's forces expand their efforts to capture more Ukrainian territory.

Dense fog enabled Russian troops to infiltrate Ukrainian positions in Zaporizhzhia, Gen. Oleksandr Syrskyi wrote on the messaging app Telegram, adding that Ukrainian units are locked in "gruelling battles" to repel the Russian thrust.

He noted, however, that the fiercest battles are still in the besieged Ukrainian city of Pokrovsk, in the eastern Donetsk region, where close to half of all front-line clashes took place over the previous 24 hours.

The cities of Kupiansk and Lyman in Ukraine's northeastern Kharkiv region have also recently witnessed an uptick in combat.

Russia launched its full-scale invasion of its neighbour almost four years ago and now occupies roughly one-fifth of Ukrainian land. New US sanctions that take aim at Russia's oil sector, which is the mainstay of the Russian economy, are due

Russian army soldiers fire to shoot a Ukrainian drone AP

Over the past four weeks, Russia has reported capturing nine settlements in Donetsk

to come into force on Nov. 21. Their purpose is to compel Russian President Vladimir Putin to accept a ceasefire. Kyiv officials, meanwhile, risk being distracted by a growing corruption scandal engulfing senior members of the government. Ukraine's Justice Minister Herman Halushchenko was suspended from his post on Wednesday after being placed under investigation, Prime Minister Yulia Svyrydenko announced.

Gains come at a cost

Russia's bigger and better-equipped army has scaled up its attacks, placing the short-handed Ukrainian military under severe strain. Ukrainian officials said in September that the front line has grown in length to nearly 1,250 km. Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy said earlier this month Russia had deployed around 170,000 troops in Donetsk. AGENCIES

Taiwan braces for Fung-wong, evacuates more than 8,300

TAIPEI: Taiwan evacuated more than 8,300 people from coastal and mountainous areas and closed schools before a tropical storm brushes the southern part of the island later on Wednesday.

Fung-wong had super typhoon strength when it battered the Philippines on Sunday, causing flooding, landslides, power outages and at least 27 deaths. Still holding tropical storm strength on Wednesday morning, it was expected to continue losing wind speed and size as it approached Taiwan.

Heavy rains and flooding injured at least 51 people as of Wednesday morning, according to the National Fire Agency. Authorities evacuated 8,326 people, where a typhoon in September left 18 dead. AGENCIES

Skirmishes as protesters confront security at UN climate talks venue

BELEM (BRAZIL): A group of activists skirmished with security on Tuesday at United Nations climate talks in Brazilian Amazon city Belem, briefly trying to force their way into the main venue before they were pushed back. Two security workers suffered minor injuries, the UN said.

The confrontation came late in the day as people were filtering out of the venue for COP30, as the talks are known.

"Earlier this evening, a group of protesters breached security barriers at the main entrance to the COP, causing minor injuries to two security staff, and minor damage to the venue," UN Climate Change said in a statement. "Brazilian and UN security personnel took protective actions to secure the venue, following all established security protocols.

Try to force their way inside before they were pushed back

Brazilian and UN authorities are investigating the incident. The venue is fully secured, and COP negotiations continue."

Agustin Ocaña, mobilization coordinator for youth with the Global Youth Coalition, told The Associated Press he was outside when he saw two groups of people, some with yellow shirts and some in the garb of Indigenous communities, walking toward the venue.

He said at first they were mostly just dancing and chanting, and he decided to follow because he has some friends in the Indigenous group. AGENCIES
