Measurement camp for differently abled students through KDMC education department

Kalyan: For students with special needs such as autism, cerebral palsy and multiple disabilities due to severe muscle and joint defects, such students can be helped to maintain their body condition if materials are prepared according to their measurements. From this point of view, under the direction of Kalyan Dombivli Municipal Commissioner Dr. Bhausaheb Dange and under the guidance of Deputy Commissioner Swati Deshpande, a measurement inspection camp was organized on Tuesday through All India Institute of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation, Maharashtra Mumbai under the guidance of Deputy Commissioner Swati Deshpande. A total of 62 students benefited from this camp and at the end of March 2023 the students were provided with chairs, splints, modify calipers, corner sitting, walkers, artificial limb crutches, cellophane materials will be provided. Administration Officer Vijay Sarjare inaugurated this measurement inspection camp. Meanwhile, Dr. Sengita Ganver, included experts Pranjali Jadhav, Vandana Pangare, Nilima Khuntia, Binod Ghosh, Burungale, Anita Patil worked hard. I.R. Cooradinaor Millard Ahire assisted in conducting the camp.
