Dear Sir / Madam,

Sub: update relating to CAMS Insurance Repository Services signing up an agreement with Life Insurance Corporation of India (“LIC”).

Pursuant to Regulation 30 of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, We provide details relating to the signing of an agreement by one of our wholly owned Subsidiary Company – CAMS Insurance Repository Services Limited. The company will be using this information in its media interactions.

CAMS Insurance Repository Services Limited (CAMSREP), the wholly owned subsidiary of the company has signed an agreement with Life Insurance Corporation of India (“LIC”) for providing Insurance Repository Services. Consequent to this the Insurance policies issued by LIC, the country’s largest life insurer, can be issued in electronic (dematerialised format) through e-Insurance Accounts (eIA) that can be opened with CAMSREP. This is a significant milestone event in the industry given the fact that the country’s largest Life insurer is commencing their engagement for electronic issuance of policies.

CAMSREP one of the first repository to get IRDAI license, has been working towards digital transformation of insurance experience for the past decade and is servicing over one crore policies in the electronic format. CAMSRep has also invested in digital transformation opportunity and has built the first ever integrated industry benefit realisation platform– Bima Central for its eIA holders. Bima Central enables eIA holders to maintain their insurance portfolio as well as avail services from insurers like renewal payment, updation of personal details and raise policy servicing requests.

Bima Central is available in Hindi & Telugu, apart from English and can be accessed via Web, Android & iOS applications. Within few quarters of launch, it has garnered 4.5 lakh active users and now processing close to 1 lakh service requests per month on this platform.

We request you to take the above on records.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,
For Computer Age Management Services Limited
