JOHANNESBURG At least 42 killed in bus crash

At least 42 people were killed in a bus crash in a mountainous region of northern South Africa, authorities said on Monday. The crash happened on Sunday on the N1 highway near the town of Louis Trichardt, around 400 kilometres (248 miles) north of the capital, Pretoria. Simon Zwane, a Road Traffic Management Corporation spokesperson, told South Africa's News24 news outlet that authorities had confirmed 42 fatalities but were still verifying the number of dead and injured. The bus veered off the road along a steep mountain pass and plunged into an embankment, the provincial government said.

PESHAWAR Six workers die in mine collapse

Six workers were killed when the mine they were working in collapsed due to an explosion in Kurram district of Pakistan's Khyber Pakhtunkhwa province, rescue officials said on Monday. The incident occurred in Tora Warai, central Kurram district, on Sunday, when a section of the mine collapsed after a blast, causing a sudden rise in water level. According to rescue officials, the blast triggered a surge in underground water, which forced the mine to cave in. The collapse occurred shortly after the explosion, leaving the mine workers stuck inside, the police said.

KNESSET OVATION | US prez greeted with thunderous applause in Israel parliament after release of 20 hostages

Today, skies are calm and guns silent: Trump

TEL AVIV

US President Trump on Monday was greeted with a thunderous applause and a standing ovation by Israeli lawmakers as he arrived at a special session of the Knesset following the release of 20 hostages by Hamas, earlier in the day.

"This is the historic dawn of a new Middle East. After so many years of unceasing war and endless danger, today, the skies are calm, the guns are silent, the sirens are still, and the sun rises on a Holy Land that is finally at peace," Trump said.

Appreciating Israeli PM Benjamin Netanyahu, Trump said, "I want to express my gratitude to a man of exceptional courage and patriotism whose partnership did so much to make this momentous day possible. Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu."

The Israeli PM heaped praise on the US President. "Two weeks ago, you succeeded in doing something miraculous, you succeeded in doing something that no one believed was possible: you brought most of the Arab world -- you brought most of the world -- behind your proposal to free the hostages and end the war."

Eyes on Gaza peace path

President Donald Trump arrived in Egypt on Monday for a global summit on Gaza's future as he tries to advance peace in the Middle East after visiting Israel to celebrate a US-brokered ceasefire with Hamas. More than two dozen countries are expected to be represented at the summit, which Trump is hosting along with Egyptian President Abdel-Fattah el-Sissi. Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu was invited but declined, with his office saying it was too close to a Jewish holiday.

Trump-Xi meet on track, says Bessent

Agencies
WASHINGTON

US President Trump was on track to meet with Chinese leader Xi Jinping in South Korea as the two sides de-escalate tensions over trade disputes, US Treasury Secretary Scott Bessent said on Monday.

The latest flare-up in US-China trade talks began on Thursday when China dramatically expanded its rare earths export controls, drawing a sharp countermeasure from Trump on Friday.

"We have substantially de-escalated," Bessent told Fox Business Network. "President Trump said that the tariffs would not go into effect until November 1. He will be meeting with Party Chair Xi in Korea. I believe that meeting will still be on."

The US expects support from allies including Europeans, India and democracies in Asia, he said on the "Mornings with Maria" programME. "China is a command and control economy. They are neither going to command nor control us," Bessent said.

POTUS warns Russia he may send Ukraine long-range Tomahawks

ABOARD AIR FORCE ONE

President Donald Trump on Sunday warned Russia that he may send Ukraine long-range Tomahawk missiles if Moscow doesn't settle its war there soon - suggesting he could be ready to increase the pressure on Vladimir Putin's government using a key weapons system.

"I might say, 'Look: if this war is not going to get settled, I'm going to send them Tomahawks,'" Trump told reporters aboard Air Force One as he flew to Israel. "The Tomahawk is an incredible weapon, very offensive weapon. And honestly, Russia does not need that."

Trump said, "I might tell them that if the war is not

His comments came after Trump spoke by phone earlier on Sunday with Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy, and Trump said he mentioned possibly sending Tomahawks during that conversation. "Do they want to have Tomahawks going in that direction? I don't think so," Trump said of Russia. "I think I might speak to Russia about that." He added that "Tomahawks are a new step of aggression." His suggestions followed Russia having attacked Ukraine's power grid overnight, part of an ongoing campaign to cripple Ukrainian energy infrastructure before winter. Moscow also expressed "extreme concern" over the US potentially providing Tomahawk cruise missiles to Ukraine.

Putin himself has previously suggested that the United States supplying long-range missiles to Ukraine will seriously damage relations between Moscow and Washington.

Zelenskyy described his latest call with Trump as "very productive," and said the pair had discussed strengthening Ukraine's "air defence, resilience, and long-range capabilities."

Madagascar prez may have fled post coup, reports swirl

ANTANANARIVO

Madagascar President Andry Rajoelina was due to make a speech on national television on Monday after an elite military unit turned against the government in an apparent coup in the Indian Ocean nation and called for Rajoelina to step down.

Rajoelina's office said that his speech would be broadcast on state television and radio at 7 pm local time (1600 GMT), but didn't say if the president was still in Madagascar amid reports he had fled following weeks of deadly anti-government protests.
