Stunning Bihar Assembly results

NDA steamrolls Oppn for massive win

Patna, Nov 15:

In a stunning electoral performance, the NDA juggernaut steamrolled the Opposition Mahagathbandhan (Grand the trends became clear, Prime Minister Narendra Modi exulted, “Jungle Raj will now never return to Bihar” as his partymen celebrated in

Kishor’s duck

Once widely acclaimed poll strategist Prashant Kishor who had founded “Jan SuraaJ”, a party with mission and vision to change entire system for larger interests of people of Bihar, drew a big ‘zero’ in state assembly polls, a moment for him to think what to do next to survive in public life. Kishor known as ‘PK’ was instrumental in preparing strategy for Narendra Modi which helped in making him Prime Minister in 2014. He had also done the job of preparing poll strategy for Chief Minister Nitish Kumar, West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee and several other CMs across states in the country.It was surprising that a man who revived sagging political fortunes of a number of top politicians of the country, had big zero in his kitty when results of Bihar assembly elections were declared. It was not just a zero of narrowly missing hitting the target but there was no hope for a win in any one of his party candidates to win even in distant dreams. Prashant Kishor fielded candidates in 238 out of 243 seats of Bihar assembly but none of them could win. It was surprising that 98 percent of them lost their deposits as number of votes polled, was far below what was expected. Even after contesting so many seats, his party polled only two per cent of valid votes.

Patna and Delhi.

While Nitish Kumar is likely to emerge as the chief minister despite his party garnering fewer seats than the BJP, the tensions between the two partners are likely to increase as the BJP has emerged as the senior partner with 89 seats, compared to JD(U)’s 85 seats. The National Democratic Alliance (NDA) spearhead Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) had won 75 seats in the previous election. The JDU, however, this time managed to nearly double its tally of 43 seats in the 2020 polls. Among other NDA partners, the Lok Jan Shakti (Ram Vilas) of Chirag Paswan also performed impressively and ended up with 19 seats, the Hindusthan

Awam Morcha (Secular) of Jitan Ram Manjhi got five, while the Rashtriya Lok Morcha emerged victorious in four seats. The GA, which came up with a pathetic show, saw its mainstay, the Rashtriya Janata Dal, end up with 25 seats, its tally less than half of its 2020 count of 53.The Congress could pick up only half a dozen seats, less than one-third of its total of 19 seats five years back. Among other GA partners, the CPI-ML(Liberation) won two seats, and the CPI-M and the India Inclusive Party bagged one seat each. Outside the two alliances, the AIMIM secured five seats, as it cut into the Muslim vote bank of the GA candidates in the Seemanchal area. The party had drawn a blank in the previous poll. The Bahujan Samaj Party grabbed the remaining seat. The big victory sparked celebrations in the offices of the various NDA partners. Addressing euphoric party workers at the BJP headquarters

Mixed fortune for Lalu’s clan

The Bihar election delivered dramatic and contrasting outcomes for the family of former Chief Minister Lalu Prasad Yadav, as his two sons-once united under the same political banner - contested from opposing camps this time. The results have drawn a sharp line between their political trajectories: Tejashwi Prasad Yadav secured victory in Raghapur, while Tej Pratap Yadav suffered a heavy defeat in Mahua. Tejashwi, the RJD’s chief ministerial face, successfully retained the family bastion of Raghapur, polling 1,18,597 votes. He defeated the BJP’s Satish Kumar by 14,532 votes after 32 rounds of counting. Although early trends indicated a close contest, Tejashwi gained steady momentum as counting progressed, eventually sealing a comfortable win. In stark contrast, his elder brother Tej Pratap finished a distant third in Mahua, marking a significant setback in his political journey. His loss comes months after a dramatic public rift with the RJD leadership. Tej Pratap’s departure from the party unfolded earlier this year when Lalu Prasad Yadav expelled him for six years on May 25, citing “irresponsible behaviour” and actions that violated party discipline. The decision followed a controversial Facebook post, in which Tej Pratap appeared to refer to a long personal relationship. Tej Pratap later claimed that his account had been hacked and the images were morphed to defame him and his family. The election thus underscored a personal and political divide within one of Bihar’s most prominent political families. While Tejashwi strengthened his position within the RJD and the state’s political landscape, Tej Pratap now faces an uncertain future after a decisive electoral defeat.

Cong cries foul

The Congress party launched a blistering attack on the outcome of the Bihar assembly elections, alleging widespread vote tampering that they claim swung the results in favour of the National Democratic Alliance (NDA). Congress leader Jairam Ramesh accused Prime Minister Narendra Modi, union Home Minister Amit Shah, and the Election Commission of being the architects of this alleged fraud, calling the results a reflection of “vote chori on a gigantic scale”. In a post on handle X, Ramesh stated, “Without doubt the election results in Bihar reflect vote ‘chori’ on a gigantic scale - masterminded by the PM, the HM, and the Election Commission.” He reiterated the Congress’ commitment to fighting to “protect the Constitution and save democracy” in Delhi in the evening, PM Modi said “good governance has won, development has won and it is the pro-people spirit which has won”. He expressed gratitude to the people of the state for giving the NDA a historic victory in the assembly polls, and said the verdict has bolstered public confidence in the Election Commission. Nitish Kumar said the people had shown strong trust in the government. Expressing his pleasure on his social media account X, Kumar said the NDA alliance fought the election with full unity, which helped them secure such a big victory. As the counting neared its end, Janata Dal United highlighted the role of women voters in the mandate. The party said the trust of Bihar’s women had prevailed, the NDA had emerged victorious, and Bihar as a whole had triumphed. In a post on X, JDU shared: “The trust of Bihar’s women has triumphed - The NDA has triumphed, Bihar has triumphed. (Jeeta hai Bihar ki mahilao ka wishwaas - jeeta hai NDA, jeeta hai Bihar).”
