The finale featured live presentations judged by a distinguished panel, including Mr. Chaitanya Shravanth, Founder & CEO – Circle Health | Mr. Navratan Katariya, Director – Innovation & Entrepreneurship (IoT & AI) – NASSCOM | Mr. Prateek Madhav, Co-founder & CEO – AssisTech Foundation (ATF) | Ms. Kalpana Subbaramappa, Program Manager – Centre for Nano Science and Engineering (CeNSE), IISc.

Preceding the finale, participants were guided through an intensive Bootcamp, which offered invaluable insights into ideation, implementation, and entrepreneurship. This experience equipped students with the tools to transform innovative ideas into actionable solutions.

Chief Guest for the Inauguration Ceremony, Mr. Deepak Paul, Managing Director, igus® (India) Pvt. Ltd, emphasized the importance of fostering innovation at a young age. "Clarity of thought, flexibility, and the ability to define problems correctly are the foundations of effective problem-solving and innovation," he noted and appreciating the initiative for nurturing future-ready young minds.

Chief Guest for the Awards Ceremony, Prof. Debabrata Das, Director, IIIT-Bangalore, highlighted the importance of nurturing a culture of innovation. "Innovation is not merely about technology, but about purpose and responsibility. Avinya, an Innovation Hub, provides a meaningful platform for young innovators from across the country to apply their ideas to real-world challenges. At IIIT-B, sustainability is a lived practice, reflected in our commitment to clean energy, responsible resource use, and environmental stewardship. We believe such initiatives empower students to become problem-solvers and changemakers for a sustainable future," he said, while congratulating the participants for their innovation and commitment.

Mr. Rajesh Pankaj, Joint CEO, Veranda K-12, added, “Avinya was conceived with a simple yet powerful belief, that innovation and purpose must begin early. What we witnessed at the Grand Finale was not just creativity, but deep thinking, empathy, and a genuine commitment to solving real-world problems aligned with the Sustainable Development Goals. At Veranda K-12, we are proud to provide a platform that nurtures curiosity, critical thinking, and the confidence to build solutions for a better tomorrow.”
