India's global profile supported by strong economic fundamentals, policy reforms

New Delhi, Nov 15 (IANS) India's growing global profile is supported by strong economic fundamentals, steady policy reforms and expanding international partnerships, which have strengthened the country's role in global trade and investment, according to Minister of State for Commerce and Industry, Jitin Prasada. At the 44th edition of the India International Trade Fair (IITF) 2025, the minister highlighted the potential of aspirational India as an emerging global economic power. Prasada said that such events play an important role in strengthening India's path toward self-reliance. Inspired by the 'Viksit Bharat at 2047' vision of Prime Minister Narendra Modi and centred around the theme "Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat", the event showcases a technologically advanced, economically resilient nation, he added. The minister stated that this year's edition reflects India's broad-based economic progress across various sectors and its contribution to employment generation. He also referred to India's ongoing engagement on FTAs with several partner countries and noted the growing international confidence in India's stable policy environment and investment climate.
