Nehru papers 'not private property', with Sonia: Govt

DIVYAA
New Delhi, December 17

IN ITS FIRST official remark, the Ministry of Culture — in a series of social media posts on Wednesday — said that Congress leader Sonia Gandhi took away “all of the private family letters and notes” of former Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru from Prime Ministers’ Museum & Library (then Nehru Memorial Museum & Library) in 2008, and that PMML has been in correspondence with her to reclaim the documents.

Union Minister Gajendra Shekhawat said on Wednesday that Sonia Gandhi has acknowledged in writing that “these papers are with her” and promised to “cooperate” on the issue.

It was reported a day earlier that Sonia has assured the PMML of her cooperation in its bid to obtain a trove of private papers of the country’s first PM. In fact, this is the first time that Sonia has responded to a communication from PMML in the wake of allegations that a bulk of these papers, in 51 cartons, was taken by her in 2008. Sonia conveyed that “her staff will look into it”, sources said.

Responding to a post on X on Tuesday by Congress communications in-charge Jairam Ramesh, where he had sought an apology from the government for its earlier claim that the papers were missing, Shekhawat said “it would be more appropriate for you to urge Sonia Gandhi to honour her commitment and return these papers to PMML” so that scholars, citizens, and the Parliament can access these crucial historical records and the truth of “Nehruvian” times can be examined objectively.

PMML, which is an autonomous institution under the Culture Ministry, had written to the Congress leader twice this year seeking access to these papers, as well as any other correspondence pertaining to Nehru that might be in her custody.

While the matter was widely discussed at the organisation’s last two annual general meetings (2024 and 2025), this is for the first time that the government has come on record on the matter.

“Vide letter dated 29.04.2008 Shri M V Rajan, representative of Smt. Sonia Gandhi, requested that Smt. Gandhi wishes to take back all of the private family letters and notes of former PM Jawahar Lal Nehru,” said the Ministry on X.

“Accordingly, 51 cartons of Nehru Papers were sent to Smt. Sonia Gandhi in 2008. PMML has been in continuous correspondence with the office of Smt Sonia Gandhi since then for return of these papers including the letters from PMML to Smt Sonia Gandhi dated 28-01-2025 and 03-07-2025,” it said.

“These documents, relating to the first Prime Minister of India, form part of the nation’s documentary heritage and not a private property. Their custody with PMML and access to citizens and scholars for research is vital,” it said.

Bondi shooter came to Hyderabad for nikah in 2001, with son later

NIKHILA HENRY
Hyderabad, December 17

BONDI BEACH SHOOTER Sajid Akram brought his European-origin wife to Hyderabad in 2001 for a nikah ceremony, and his son Naveed Akram — a co-accused in the terror attack — around 2004-05 to introduce him to his parents, based on conversations, it has been learnt with investigators who have questioned close relatives.

After 15 people were killed in the mass shooting that occurred during a Hanukkah celebration in Sydney, law enforcement agencies identified the gunman as Sajid (50) and his son Naveed (24). While the former left for Australia in 1998, the latter was born there. “Sajid’s family had to be questioned because we needed to know whether they had any inkling about the attack. They cooperated. We have not found anything suspicious so far,” a Telangana intelligence official who questioned them said.

What remains a mystery for intelligence officials in Telangana is why Sajid never got an Australian citizenship

“They seemed shocked to knowhe (Sajid) could do something like this. They immediately told us all they knew about his visits to Hyderabad,” the officer said.

Sajid, an Indian passport holder, moved to Australia in search of employment after completing his bachelor’s degree in commerce. He married a woman of European origin, and they had two children — Naveed and a daughter.

“In 2001, he came to Hyderabad to introduce his wife to his parents. They performed a nikah for them,” an intelligence source said. In 2004-05, he visited the house in Tolichowki with Naveed. “He wanted his parents to meet his son,” the intelligence officer said. Sajid’s father died in 2009.

In 2012 and 2016, he came to Hyderabad to sell his share in the ancestral property. “We were wondering whether he still owns property in Hyderabad. That is not the case. He did not have a home to come to, other than his brother’s house in Tolichowki,” the intelligence officer said.

There is no adverse record of any kind in Sajid’s name during his stay in India, Telangana DGP B Shivadhar Reddy had said in a press statement on Tuesday. “Sajid and his son are believed to have been radicalised in Australia,” an intelligence source claimed.
