Thomas Cook India's Nature Trails expands network with its 5th resort Launches Nature Trails Rishikesh in Uttarakhand

Perfectly located between Rishikesh and Haridwar & offers a seamless blend of spirituality, adventure and outdoor experiences

Mumbai, January 20, 2026: As India's domestic travel continues to evolve, travelers—especially young Indian families, are increasingly seeking holidays that offer a blend of rest & relaxation, spirituality, nature, adventure and gastronomy. Responding to this growing preference, Nature Trails—the experiential hospitality brand by Thomas Cook (India) Limited has expanded its portfolio, adding to its existing four resorts at Durshet, Sajjan and Kundalika in Maharashtra and Rock Valley in Goa, with the launch of their 5th resort, Nature Trails Rishikesh in Uttarakhand.

Nature Trails Rishikesh is perfectly located between Rishikesh and Haridwar—two of India's most popular spiritual and adventure tourism hubs and will appeal to travelers seeking both spiritual and off beat adventure experiences. Set across sprawling 4 acres of lush greenery in the Chilla region near the gateway to Rajaji National Park, the resort features 29 thoughtfully designed rooms with private balconies and sit-out areas. Surrounded by open lawns, palm-lined pathways and offering a host of activities while guests enjoy the refreshing Himalayan weather & ambience Rishikesh is renowned for.

Guests can immerse themselves in the destination's spiritual wealth through visits to Laxman Jhula and Tapovan and the soulful Ganga Aarti at Triveni Ghat, while also enjoying easy access to nature and adventure experiences, including safari rides through the Rajaji National Park, riverside walks, white-water rafting, nature walks and outdoor exploration with local guides. Within the resort, leisurely experiences range from poolside relaxation with mountain views and peaceful evening strolls to wholesome dining inspired by authentic local Garhwali flavours alongside tasty food from across the country —creating a fulfilling stay blending spirituality, fun and leisure.

Nature Trails Rishikesh enjoys excellent connectivity with easy access by road, rail and air—well-linked via NH7 and NH34 with bus and taxi services from Delhi, Haridwar and Dehradun; just 20 kms from Haridwar railway station and around 40 kms from Dehradun's Jolly Grant Airport—making it ideal for families, couples, spiritual seekers, adventure enthusiasts, group retreats and corporate off-sites.

Mr. Mahesh Iyer – Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer, Thomas Cook (India) Limited said, "India's domestic experiential travel is witnessing strong momentum, with travellers across age groups seeking immersive experiences that combine rest & relaxation, adventure, gastronomy and spirituality. Now with this launch of our 5th Nature Trails resort at Rishikesh, we are creating an attractive offering to travellers seeking to combine adventure and spiritual tourism through curated, locally rooted, authentic experiences. Since acquiring Nature Trails last year, we have embarked on an aggressive expansion strategy to leverage the massive opportunity in domestic tourism. This launch at Rishikesh follows on the heels of our resort in Ponda, Goa that we launched just last week. We have a strong growth pipeline in place and plan to expand the Nature Trails portfolio further in the weeks and months ahead"
