EXHICON-ITPO COLLABORATION STRENGTHENED IN GUWAHATI, SET TO GROW AT INDIA INTERNATIONAL LEATHER FAIR, CHENNAI

Exhicon Events Media Solutions Limited (“Exhicon”) has strengthened its collaboration with India Trade Promotion Organisation (“ITPO”) at the East Himalayan Expo concurrent with Agri Expo opened in Guwahati yesterday, reinforcing its role in delivering professionally managed and scalable exhibition environments.

The collaboration, established through on-ground execution and operational management reflects the shared commitment of EXHICON and ITPO to enhance exhibition standards and operational efficiency. The partnership is set to expand further at the upcoming India International Leather Fair (IILF), Chennai, one of Asia’s biggest key B2B Exhibition for the leather industry.

At IILF Chennai, EXHICON will focus on optimising exhibition infrastructure, improving visitor experience, and supporting exhibitors through seamless execution aligned with ITPO’s global benchmarks. Industry stakeholders view the strengthened collaboration as a positive development for India’s exhibition ecosystem, particularly as international participation and sector-led trade fairs continue to grow.

The East Himalayan Trade Fair & East Himalayan Agri Expo 2026 officially commenced with its inauguration by Dr J. B. Ekka, IAS, Additional Chief Secretary, Industry and Commerce Department, Government of Assam.

The ceremony was graced by Shri Premjit Lal, ITS, Executive Director, ITPO, and Lt Col Harsh Kondilya, OSD & General Manager, Domestic Fair Division, ITPO.
