Aurionpro's Integro Platform to Power Global Lending Modernization for a Top Singaporean Bank

The engagement involves corporate lending platform modernization across the bank's global subsidiaries. This win underscores the customer's continued confidence in Aurionpro's industry-leading solutions and long-standing strategic relationship.

Mumbai/Singapore, 23 Dec 2025: Integro Technologies, a subsidiary of Aurionpro Solutions, is pleased to announce a landmark order from a reputed global bank headquartered in Singapore. The order value of approximately INR 63 Crores is one of the largest engagements in Asia in 2025 among lending product vendors. The engagement reflects strong customer confidence in Aurionpro's differentiated, future-ready lending products and reinforces its position as a trusted long-term technology partner to leading global banks.

This large-scale program, comprising multiple critical initiatives, will be delivered across the bank's global network of subsidiaries and regions, resulting in a single, unified global deployment. The program will modernize the bank's existing lending operations through the rollout of Aurionpro's next-generation Integro Corporate Lending platform enabling cross-border data access, enhanced financial analysis and credit rating capabilities, and extended net-zero digitization for ESG workflows and ESG covenant monitoring. This program is expected to strengthen the bank's global sustainable financing capabilities while delivering improved operational consistency, efficiency, and governance across its global lending franchise.

"We are delighted and honored that such a global and modern bank selected us for the transformation of their lending business," said Shekhar Mullatti, President – Banking Solutions Group. "The engagement reinforces the strength and maturity of our corporate lending software and the sustained trust and confidence our clients place in Aurionpro. We are working in close partnership with the bank to support the transformation of its lending operations across subsidiaries and geographies. Our AI-native, future-ready platforms are designed with depth, scalability, and proven capabilities. This win reinforces Aurionpro's position as a leading player in the lending technology space, with a proven track record to partner with leading global banks in their lending transformation initiatives."
