Subject: Resignation

Dear Sir,

As we have discussed yesterday, after 28 remarkable years with OCCL, I write this letter with a deep sense of gratitude, reflection and bit of heavy heart to formally tender my resignation.

Looking back, it's been an incredible journey—one that began when OCCL was still finding its footing. I feel privileged to have witnessed and contributed my bit to its transformation from a struggling organization into the stable company it is today. Through every challenge and milestone, I've grown not just professionally, but personally as well.

One of the most meaningful aspects of this journey has been the opportunity to work under your leadership. You have been more than a boss—you've been a mentor, a teacher, and a guide. I've learned so much from your wisdom and your unwavering belief in people including me. Our travels together, the countless conversations, and the shared vision for OCCL's future have left a lasting impression on me. Those moments have shaped my perspective and created a load full of memories that I will cherish in days to come.

As I prepare to turn the page to a new chapter, I carry with me the values and lessons that I have learnt from my journey and your mentorship. I am immensely proud of what we've built together and will always remain a well-wisher of OCCL and its people.

I will appreciate if I can be relieved by 27th January, 2026.

Sincerely,

Muneesh Batta
