Sunil D’Souza, Managing Director & CEO of Tata Consumer Products said

“Q3FY26 marked another quarter of strong, broad-based performance for Tata Consumer Products, led by healthy volume-led growth and sustained momentum across our core as well as growth businesses. Our India Branded business delivered double-digit underlying volume growth, with Foods and Beverages continuing on a strong trajectory driven by strong execution, portfolio expansion and premiumization.

We are encouraged by the consistent performance in our Foods business, the accelerating momentum in Tata Sampann and Ready-to-Drink, and the steady gains in our International business, particularly in coffee. Innovation remains a key growth engine, with 15 new launches during the quarter across Health & Wellness, Convenience and Premium segments.

With improving margins, disciplined execution and a sharper focus on high-growth categories, we remain confident in our strategy to build a more agile, innovation-led and profitable consumer business for the long term.”
