Actor Sooraj Pancholi acquitted in Jiah Khan death case

Mumbai, April 28 (UNI) : Ten years after the sensational death of an American citizen and actress Jiah Khan, a Mumbai Special CBI Court on Friday acquitted actor Sooraj Pancholi in the case, in which he was charged with abetment to suicide.

On June 3, 2013 Jiah, 25 was found dead in her Mumbai flat in Sagar Sangeet apartments, Juhu, area of city subarb. Jiah was stated to be in a relationship with Sooraj who was then trying to make his mark in Bollywood.

She apparently left a note, which pointed the needle of suspicion towards Sooraj, who was later arrested in connection with her death and was booked under IPC Section 306 for allegedly abetting Jiah's suicide, a week after Jiah ended her life.

The prosecution in the case had examined 22 witnesses including Jiah's mother Rabia, while Advocate Prashant Patil appeared for Sooraj.

Police resort to lathi charge, use tear gas at Barsu

Don't try to impose Barsu project by assaulting locals: Cong to Maha govt

Mumbai, April 28 (UNI) : The BJP-led Shinde government is trying to impose the refinery project at Barsu in Ratnagiri district on the people forcibly despite strong opposition from locals, Maharashtra Pradesh Congress Committee (MPCC) president Nana Patole said on Friday.

The police force is being used against those opposing the project and the Congress is standing firmly behind the locals, he said. Patole warned that if the government resorted to assaulting the locals and filing false cases against them, Congress will give a befitting reply.

The position of the Congress is that the government should not take a decision on the Barsu refinery project without taking the locals into confidence. "But the government is acting in a dictatorial manner. It will not be tolerated if the government does injustice against the locals by using force and oppressing those who are opposed to the project," Patole said.

He alleged that hundreds of acres of land in Ratnagiri district where the Barsu Refinery project is being set up has been acquired at low rates by outsiders and people close to the government and now the same land is being sold at high rates to earn money.

ACB officials nab Talathi for accepting bribe of Rs 10,000

Sangli, Maharashtra, April 28 (UNI) : Anti Corruption Bureau (ACB) officials on Friday nabbed a Talathi (employee of land revenue department) of Kupwad for accepting a bribe of Rs 10,000 from the complainant for registering his home-land on the relevant certificate.

The arrested employee has been identified as Sachin Pralhad Ingole (38), resident of Vijaynagar and working as a Talathi in Kupwad of this district.

A press release said the complainant had purchased a land in Kupwad area and also took a certificate of 'Guntewari' from the Sangli-Miraj-Kumwad Municipal Corporation and applied for registration on the relevant certificate. He met Ingole and requested for a new certificate with the registered purchased land. Ingole demanded Rs 10,000 for it. Later, the complainant informed the ACB officials, who laid a trap at the Talathi's office and arrested him red-handed to Mr Ingole while accepting the bribe.

"We will meet them": Aaditya Thackeray on protestors against Barsu Refinery project

Mumbai, April 28 : Former Maharashtra Minister and Uddhav Thackeray's son Aaditya Thackeray on Thursday said he will meet the protestors against the Barsu Refinery project in Ratnagiri, to stand in solidarity with them.

The residents of Barsu village in Ratnagiri have been protesting against the setting up of the refinery.

The Shiv Sena (UBT) leader urged the state government to hold talks with the residents of Barsu amid the protest over the refinery project in the village.

"The government should hold a proper dialogue with the residents of Barsu and no work should be done without proper consultations. We will meet the protestors and extend our solidarity with them," Thackeray said.

Earlier, on Thursday, Maharashtra Chief Minister

Eknath Shinde said he had a discussion with Nationalist Congress Party (NCP) chief Sharad Pawar and assured him that the Barsu refinery project will be carried out only after taking all stakeholders, including local residents, into confidence.

Speaking to reporters, Shinde said, "I had a telephonic conversation with Sharad Pawar yesterday about the Barsu Refinery project. Pawarji said that the state Industries Minister should take all officials and people concerned into confidence. I told him that the project won't be implemented by force and no injustice shall be done to the people."

"Nagpur Mumbai Samrudhi Highway had also been opposed by the people initially but we are seeing the fruits of the project there. A final decision with regard to the refinery project will be made after taking the farmers into confidence," he added.

Earlier, on Tuesday, Shinde had slammed Uddhav Thackeray and the Maha Vikas Aghadi (MVA) for opposing the refinery project.

Speaking to reporters at Mahabaleshwar in his native Satara district, CM Shinde backed the Barsu green refinery project and questioned the MVA's sudden opposition to it.

Citing a letter written by his predecessor Uddhav Thackeray to Prime Minister Narendra Modi, asking him to set up the refinery in the region in the interest of development, the CM said new employment avenues would open up for locals as the project would bring investments worth thousands of crores.

Shinde said, "It was then CM (Uddhav Thackeray), who gave the green signal to the project after the Nanar project was cancelled. He even wrote to PM Modi seeking implementation of the Barsu Refinery project." "After all this, it is difficult to understand why the Barsu is being opposed now. It's a matter of research," he said. The CM added that the Samrudhi Mahamarg project was continued despite the Opposition's resistance initially.
