Iranian ambassador leaves Australia

ASSOCIATED PRESS
■ Sydney

Iran's ambassador to Australia was seen preparing to leave the country on Thursday, days after Prime Minister Anthony Albanese ordered him to leave over accusations that Tehran masterminded at least two antisemitic arson attacks in the country.

Local television stations Network Seven and Network Nine spoke to Ambassador Ahmad Sadeghi as he headed for a flight at the airport in Sydney.

Albanese cut off diplomatic relations with Iran on Tuesday after announcing that Australian intelligence officials had concluded that Iran had directed arson attacks on the Lewis Continental Kitchen, a kosher food company in Sydney, in October 2024 and on Melbourne's Adass Israel Synagogue two months later.

The Australian government told Sadeghi that he would be expelled shortly before making the accusation public, Albanese said.

Albanese previously resisted calls to expel Iran's envoy to Canberra before, analysts said, including in 2024 when Sadeghi was summoned for meetings with foreign ministry officials over his social media posts.

There has been a steep rise in antisemitic incidents in Sydney and Melbourne since the Israel-Hamas war began in 2023, and Australian authorities have previously said they suspect that foreign actors are paying local criminals-for-hire to carry out attacks in the country.

Mike Burgess, the director-general of the Australian Security Intelligence Organisation, said no Iranian diplomats in Australia were involved in coordinating the attacks.

Neither Burgess nor Albanese explained what evidence there was of Iranian involvement.

IRANIAN RIAL CRASHES

Dubai: Iran's rial currency fell to near-record lows on Thursday as concerns grew in Tehran that European nations will start a process to reimpose United Nations sanctions on the Islamic Republic over its nuclear programme, further squeezing the country's ailing economy.

The move, termed the "snapback" mechanism by the diplomats who negotiated it into Iran's 2015 nuclear deal with world powers, was designed to be veto-proof before the world body and would be likely to go into effect after a 30-day window. If implemented, the measure would again freeze Iranian assets abroad, halt arms deals with Tehran and penalises any development of its ballistic missile programme, among other measures.

In Tehran on Thursday, the rial traded at over 1 million to $1. At the time of the 2015 accord, it traded at 32,000 to $1, showing the currency's precipitous collapse in the time since. The rial hit its lowest point ever in April at 1,043,000 rials to $1.

France, Germany and the United Kingdom warned August 8 that Iran could trigger snapback when it halted inspections by the International Atomic Energy Agency after Israeli strikes at the start of the two countries' 12-day war in June.

Ukraine: 12 killed, 48 injured in Russian attack

ASSOCIATED PRESS ■ Kyiv

A mass Russian drone and missile attack on Ukraine's capital, including a rare strike in the centre of the city, early on Thursday killed at least 12 people and wounded 48, local authorities said.

It was the first major Russian combined attack on Kyiv in weeks as US-led peace efforts to end the three-year war struggled to gain traction. Russia launched 598 strike drones and decoys and 31 missiles of different types across the country, according to Ukraine's Air Force, making it one of the war's biggest air attacks.

Among the dead were three children ages 2, 14 and 17, said Tymur Tkachenko, the head of Kyiv's city administration. The numbers are expected to rise.

Rescue teams were on site to pull people trapped underneath the rubble.

"Russia chooses ballistics instead of the negotiating table," Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy said in a post on X following the attack. "We expect a response from everyone in the world who has called for peace but now more often stays silent rather than taking principled positions."

Russia's Ministry of Defence said Thursday it shot down 102 Ukrainian drones overnight, mostly in the country's southwest. A drone attack sparked a blaze at the Afipsky oil refinery in the Krasnodar region, local officials said, while a second fire was reported at the Novokuibyshevsk refinery in the Samara region.

Ukrainian drones have repeatedly struck refineries and other oil infrastructure in recent weeks in an attempt to weaken Russia's war economy, causing gas stations in some Russian regions to run dry and prices to spike.

Russia launched decoy drones, cruise missiles and ballistic missiles, said Tkachenko.

At least 20 locations across seven districts of Kyiv had impacts. Nearly 100 buildings were damaged, including a shopping mall in the city centre, and thousands of windows were shattered, he said. Ukrainian forces shot down and neutralised 563 drones and decoys and 26 missiles across the country, its Air Force said.

Russian strikes hit the central part of Kyiv, one of the few times Russian attacks have reached the heart of the Ukrainian capital since the start of the full-scale invasion. Residents cleared shattered glass and debris from damaged buildings. Sophia Akylina said her home was damaged.

"It's never happened before that they attacked so close," the 21-year old said. "Negotiations haven't yielded anything yet, unfortunately people are suffering."

Bodies pulled from the rubble: Smoke billowed from the crumbled column of a five-story residential building in the Darnytskyi district, which suffered a direct hit. An acrid stench of burning material wafted in the air as firefighters worked to contain the blaze.

Emergency responders searched for survivors and pulled bodies from the destruction. Crowds of residents stood nearby waiting for relatives to retrieved from the rubble, including a man who was waiting for information about his wife and son. Bodies in black bags were placed to the side of the building.

It was not the first time the district was targeted, neighbourhood residents said.

Oleksandr Khilko arrived at the scene after a missile hit the residential building where his sister lives.

He heard screams from people who were trapped under the rubble and pulled out three survivors, including a boy.

"It's inhuman, striking civilians," he said, his clothes covered in dust and the tips of his fingers black with soot. "With every cell of my body I want this war to end as soon as possible. I wait, but every time the air raid alarm sounds, I am afraid."

Ukraine's national railway operator, Ukrzaliznytsia, reported damage to its infrastructure in the Vinnytsia and Kyiv regions, causing delays and requiring trains to use alternative routes.

China, India should jointly ensure peace in border areas: Chinese military

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
■ Beijing

China and India should jointly safeguard peace and tranquility in their border areas after the recent positive and constructive round of border talks between them during which a 10-point consensus was reached, the Chinese military said on Thursday.

The Special Representatives, NSA Ajit Doval and Chinese Foreign Minister Wang Yi, held the 24th Round of Talks on the India-China Boundary Question on August 19 in Delhi.

During the talks, a 10-point consensus was reached, and the two sides agreed to utilise the border management and control mechanisms through diplomatic and military channels, China's Defence Spokesperson Zhang Xiaogang said, commenting for the first time on the outcome of the dialogue.

During the talks, the two sides had a candid and in-depth exchange of views on the China-India boundary question in a positive and constructive spirit, reaching multiple consensuses, Zhang said.

Putin, Kim Jong to take part in China's V-Day parade

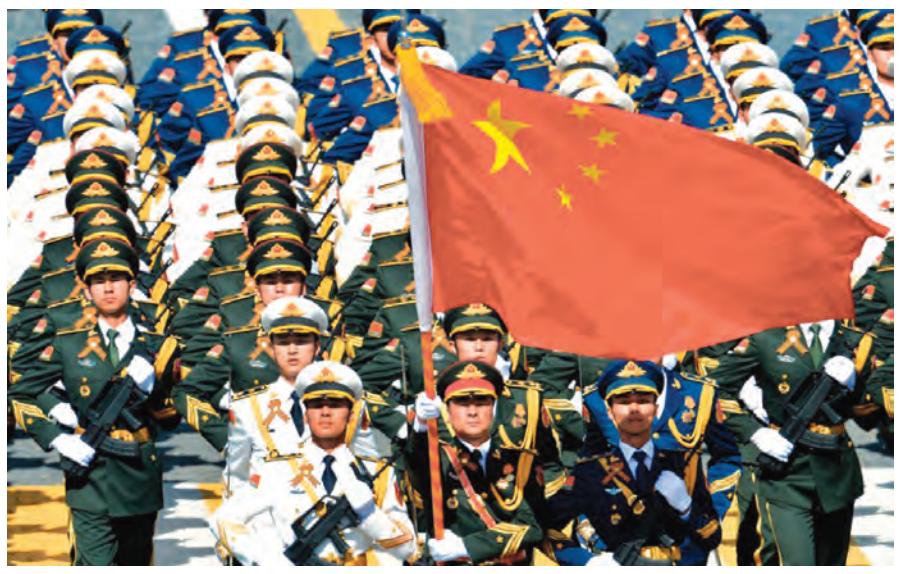

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
■ Beijing

Twenty-six foreign leaders, including Russian President Vladimir Putin and North Korean leader Kim Jong Un, will attend China's military parade to commemorate its victory against "Japanese aggression" in WWII.

The presence of foreign leaders at the parade on September 3 in what Beijing describes as the "war of resistance against Japanese aggression in World War II" has become a diplomatic spat between Japan and China after Tokyo urged the world leaders to refrain from attending, saying it has "anti-Japanese overtones".

China has lodged a diplomatic protest with Japan for its request to the world leaders not to attend the event. At the invitation of Chinese President Xi Jinping, 26 foreign leaders will attend China's V-Day commemorations in Beijing, Assistant Foreign Minister Hong Lei announced here on Thursday.

Those include Putin and Kim, he added.

From the subcontinent, Pakistan Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif, Nepal Prime Minister K P Sharma Oli and Maldives President Mohamed Muizzu will attend the parade, according to the list of leaders released by Hong.

"China will stage a massive military parade on September 3 to commemorate the 80th anniversary of the victory in the Chinese People's War of Resistance Against Japanese Aggression and the World Anti-Fascist War," Hong said.

The parade is being held in Beijing soon after the Shanghai Cooperation Organisation (SCO) Summit, which is scheduled for August 31 and September 1 in Tianjin city.

China is this year's rotating chair of the 10-member bloc, including Russia, India, Iran, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Pakistan, Tajikistan, Uzbekistan, and Belarus.

Last week, China's Assistant Foreign Minister Liu Bin told a media briefing here that 20 world leaders, besides 10 heads of international organisations, including UN Secretary General Antonio Guterres, will attend the SCO summit.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi will visit Tianjin to participate in the SCO summit after his two-day visit to Japan.

China's efforts to rope in leaders of several countries attending the SCO summit to attend its parade drew Japan's ire.

Japanese news agency Kyodo reported Tuesday that Japan has conveyed to other nations through its embassies abroad that China's commemorative events have "anti-Japanese overtones" and that the participation of leaders should be carefully considered.

The Chinese foreign ministry has reacted angrily to Japanese calls to leaders of the countries by lodging a diplomatic protest with Tokyo.

"If Japan truly wants to turn this page on historical issues, it should face squarely and reflect on its history of aggression with sincerity, make a clean break with militarism, stick to the path of peaceful development,

British Sikh MP Jeevun Sandher marries fellow Labour politician

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
■ London

Jeevun Sandher, one of Britain's newest members of Parliament elected in the Labour Party's landslide general election victory last July, has tied the knot in a traditional Sikh and church wedding with fellow Labour MP Louise Jones.

Sandher, MP for Loughborough in the East Midlands region of England, took to social media on Wednesday to post pictures from the dual wedding ceremonies over the course of the summer vacation period this month.

Their engagement had been announced in Parliament by Leader of the House of Commons Lucy Powell in December 2024, nearly two years after they met on the campaign trail as relatively new Labour Party politicians.

"I am delighted to share with you all that, over the summer, I married my wonderful wife, Louise Sandher-Jones," Sandher said in his post.

"I met Louise in Loughborough and consider myself very, very lucky. The wedding was the best day of my life".

UK PM Keir Starmer to replace key Downing Street aide Ninjeri Pandit

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
■ London

British Prime Minister Keir Starmer is set to replace one of his key aides at 10 Downing Street in London, Ninjeri 'Nin' Pandit, after just 10 months as his Principal Private Secretary (PPS), according to UK media reports on Thursday.

The Indian-origin top civil servant, in charge of running the team at the Prime Minister's office as PPS, is expected to be moved into a new role leading on policy delivery at number 10 Downing Street.

According to the BBC, Starmer had become concerned that Pandit was ineffective as one of the most influential members of his inner circle. However, allies of the UK PM have since dismissed this speculation and indicated that he retained trust and confidence in her.

While Downing Street has declined to confirm or deny developments related to internal staffing matters, the Opposition Conservatives jumped on the news as a sign of the Labour Government's lack of direction.

"Keir Starmer keeps sacking advisers, losing ministers, and briefing against his own team in the papers. Another reset won't hide the truth: he has no plan, no direction, and needs his Red Folder (official Government files) to remind him what he stands for," Opposition Leader Kemi Badenoch posted on social media, with reference to the media reports over a proposed PPS replacement.

According to the official biography on the UK Government website, Pandit was previously director of the Downing Street policy unit from November 2022 – when Rishi Sunak was prime minister. Prior to the policy role, she led the Downing Street Delivery Unit's health and social care team, including during the COVID pandemic. Before joining the PM's office, Pandit was with the state-funded National Health Service as the chief of staff and lead policy advisor to the NHS England CEO.

Pandit has worked in digital health services in a variety of areas such as the first electronic personal health record in mental health services in the UK, and also led work on information transparency for the Mayor of London's Health Improvement Board.

The senior civil servant has an MSc in Health, Community and Development and a BSc in Biopsychology and French.

Indian fishermen travel to Sri Lanka to reclaim seized boats

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA ■ Colombo

A 15-member team of Indian fishermen has arrived in Sri Lanka to take possession of fishing boats seized earlier by the Sri Lankan authorities for alleged poaching, officials said on Thursday.

Led by S Jesurasa, the group from Tamil Nadu's Rameswaram town reached the northern Jaffna district on Wednesday and inspected seven boats docked at the Myliddi fishing harbour. The vessels were released in 2022 by Sri Lankan authorities.

The fishermen are scheduled to spend three days in Jaffna to engage local repair workers to restore the engines of the boats before taking them back to India. They are expected to return later to ferry the vessels once the repairs are complete, officials said.

गाजियाबाद। गाजियाबाद के वार्ड-99 में स्थित गौर ग्रीन सिटी मार्केट में नगर निगम की लापरवाही ने स्थानीय निवासियों की मुश्किलें बढ़ा दी हैं। मार्केट के बीचों-बीच एक खुला नाला लोगों के लिए खतरा बन गया है। स्थानीय लोगों के अनुसार, नाले की सफाई के लिए उसे कुछ समय पहले खोला गया था, लेकिन कई दिन बीत जाने के बाद भी नगर निगम ने इसे ढकने की जहमत नहीं उठाई। यह लापरवाही न केवल आम लोगों के लिए परेशानी का सबब बनी है, बल्कि गंभीर दुर्घटना का कारण भी बन सकती है। निवासियों का कहना है कि खुले नाले के कारण बच्चे, बुजुर्ग और रात के समय दुकानदारों को सबसे ज्यादा खतरा है। बारिश के मौसम में नाले में गिरने का जोखिम और बढ़ जाता है, क्योंकि पानी का बहाव तेज होने से स्थिति और खतरनाक हो जाती है। स्थानीय निवासी रमेश शर्मा ने बताया, हमने कई बार नगर निगम में शिकायत की, लेकिन कोई सुनवाई नहीं हुई। अधिकारी सिर्फ आश्वासन देते हैं, लेकिन कार्रवाई शून्य है।ह एक अन्य निवासी, प्रीति वर्मा, ने कहा, रेखा रोजाना सैकड़ों लोग आते-जाते हैं। अगर कोई हादसा हो गया, तो इसका जिम्मेदार कौन होगा? लोगों का गुस्सा अब चरम पर है।
