CHAPTER I

1. Introduction

Pursuant to SEBI (Insider Trading) (Amendment) Regulations, 2002, the Board of Directors of the Company in its 342nd Meeting held on 26th August, 2002 approved the “Code of Conduct for Prevention of Insider Trading” which came into force with immediate effect. The Code was subsequently revised by the Board of Directors in its 409th Meeting held on 29th January, 2009 in line with the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) (Amendment) Regulations, 2008, 469th Meeting held on 6th April, 2015 pursuant to commencement of Companies Act, 2013 & SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (wherein it was renamed as the Code of Conduct for Regulating & Reporting Trading by Insiders and for Fair Disclosure, 2015), through circulation pursuant to the Companies (Amendment) Act, 2017 & SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) (Amendment) Regulations, 2018 (wherein it was renamed as the “BHEL Code of Conduct for Regulating & Reporting Trading by Designated Persons & their Immediate Relatives and for Fair Disclosure” to come into force w.e.f. 1st April, 2019) and lastly, in its 566th Meeting held on 28th January, 2025 in compliance with the various amendments to the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015.

Now, inter-alia, in compliance with the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) (Amendment) Regulations, 2025, the Board of Directors hereby adopts the revised “BHEL Code of Conduct for Regulating & Reporting Trading by Designated Persons & their Immediate Relatives and for Fair Disclosure” of BHARAT HEAVY ELECTRICALS LIMITED, which shall come into force with effect from 29th October, 2025.

2. The Policy and Obligations

The Company endeavours to preserve the confidentiality of unpublished price sensitive information and to prevent misuse of such information. The Company is committed to transparency and fairness in dealing with all stakeholders and in ensuring adherence to all laws and regulations.

CHAPTER II CONFIDENTIALITY & COMMUNICATION OF UPSI

6. Compliance Officer

- 6.1 Director (Finance) shall be the Compliance Officer for the purpose of the Code.
- 6.2 The Compliance Officer shall be responsible for compliance of policies, procedures, maintenance of records, monitoring adherence to the rules for the preservation of UPSI, monitoring of trades and the implementation of the Code of Conduct under the overall supervision of the Board of Directors.
- 6.3 The Compliance Officer shall ensure adequate and effective system of internal controls to ensure compliance with the requirements given in the regulations to prevent insider trading.
- 6.4 A Record of Designated Employees shall be maintained by Corporate-HR under the overall supervision and control of the Compliance Officer and changes taking place in the list from time to time shall be incorporated therein.
- 6.5 The Compliance Officer shall provide any clarifications with regard to the implementation of this Code. The Company Secretary shall assist the Compliance Officer in discharging this function.
- 6.6 The Compliance Officer shall designate a Senior Official or the Company Secretary of the Company to act as Compliance Officer in his absence.

7. Preservation of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information

- 7.1 All the unpublished price sensitive information shall be identified and its confidentiality shall be maintained.
- 7.2 All Designated Persons shall maintain the confidentiality of price sensitive information. All information shall be handled within the organisation on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- 7.3 Lists of all employees and other persons with whom unpublished price sensitive information is shared shall be maintained and confidentiality agreements shall be signed or notice shall be served to all such employees and persons.
- 7.4 No insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

- 7.5 No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- 7.6 Any person in receipt of unpublished price sensitive information pursuant to a “legitimate purpose” shall be considered an “insider” and due notice shall be given to such persons to maintain confidentiality of such unpublished price sensitive information.
- 7.7 Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code, an unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would: –
- (i) entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the board of directors of the Company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company;
 - (ii) not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the board of directors of the Company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the board of directors may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.
- 7.8 For the purpose of the above clause, the parties shall be required to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the purpose of Clause 7.7 and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.
- 7.9 For the purpose of prompt public disclosure of UPSI, the Company also adopts the Code regarding practice & procedure for Fair Disclosure set out at Annexure-I. The Policy for determination of “legitimate purposes” has been incorporated as a part of the Code of Fair Disclosure.
- 7.10 A structured digital database shall be maintained by Corporate HR containing the nature of unpublished price sensitive information and the names of such persons who have shared the information and also the names of such persons with whom information is shared under the Regulations along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available. Such database shall not be outsourced and shall be maintained internally with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database. Inputs in this regard shall be ensured by the concerned Heads of Departments on the same day of sharing the said UPSI.

Necessary support for maintenance of structured digital database (including any updation, amendment etc.) shall be provide by the Company's IT (Corporate Digital Transformation) department.

- 7.11 The structured digital database shall be preserved for a period of not less than eight years after completion of the relevant transactions and in the event of receipt of any information from SEBI regarding any investigation or enforcement proceedings, the relevant information in the structured digital database shall be preserved till the completion of such proceedings.
- 7.12 The Company has issued a Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) for UPSI Creation in Structured Digital Database & Closure of Trading Window under the Regulations. Head of Units/ Regions/ Corp. Functions/Business Sectors shall ensure compliance with this SOP prior to disclosures made to the Stock Exchanges as per Internal Operating Guidelines to BHEL's Policy for Determination of Materiality of Events & Information & their Disclosure.

CHAPTER III TRADING RESTRICTIONS

8. Trading when in possession of UPSI

No insider shall trade in securities that are listed or proposed to be listed on a stock exchange when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information. When a person who has traded in securities has been in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, his trades would be presumed to have been motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his possession.

9. Trading Window

- 9.1 Designated persons may execute trades subject to compliance with these regulations. Towards this end, a notional trading window shall be used as an instrument of monitoring trading by the designated persons. The trading window shall be closed when the compliance officer determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates. Designated persons and their immediate relatives shall not trade in securities when the trading window is closed.
- 9.2 Trading restriction period shall be made applicable from the end of every quarter till 48 hours after the declaration of financial results. The gap between clearance of accounts by audit committee and board meeting should be as narrow as possible and preferably on the same day to avoid leakage of material information.
- 9.3 The trading window restrictions mentioned in clause 9.1 shall not apply in respect of –
- (a) transactions specified in proviso to Regulation 4(1) (i) to (iv) and (vi) of the Regulations and in respect of a pledge of shares for a bonafide purpose such as raising of funds, subject to pre-clearance by the compliance officer and compliance with the respective regulations made by SEBI;
 - (b) transactions which are undertaken in accordance with respective regulations made by SEBI such as acquisition by conversion of warrants or debentures, subscribing to rights issue, further public issue, preferential allotment or tendering of shares in a buy-back offer, open offer, delisting offer or transactions which are undertaken through such other mechanism as may be specified by SEBI from time to time.
- 9.4 In case of ESOPs, exercise of option may be allowed in the period when the trading window is closed. However, sale of shares allotted on exercise of ESOPs shall not be allowed when trading window is closed.
- 9.5 The timing for re-opening of the trading window shall be determined by the compliance officer taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, which in any event shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.

- 9.6 For unpublished price sensitive information not emanating from within the Company, trading window may not be closed. Head of Units/ Regions/ Corp. Functions/ Business Sectors shall ensure compliance with the requirements in this regard as per the SOP mentioned at clause 7.12 of the Code.

10. Pre-clearance of Trades

- 10.1 All Designated Persons and their immediate relatives who intend to trade in the securities of the company above a minimum of 2500 shares of the Company per transaction should pre-clear the transactions as per the pre-trading procedure as described hereunder.
- 10.2 An application shall be made in Form PIT-1 to the Compliance Officer indicating the estimated number of securities that the Designated Persons or their immediate relatives intends to trade in, the details as to the depository with which he has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be required by any rule made by the Company in this behalf.
- 10.3 All Designated Persons and their immediate relatives shall execute their order in respect of securities of the Company within seven trading days after the approval of pre-clearance is given. If the order is not executed within the aforementioned specified period, the Designated Person must pre-clear the transaction again.
- 10.4 In case the Designated Person or his/ her immediate relative decides not to execute the trade after securing pre-clearance, he/ she shall inform the Compliance Officer of such decision immediately.
- 10.5 Prior to approving any trades, the Compliance Officer shall be entitled to seek declarations to the effect that the applicant for pre-clearance is not in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information. He shall also have regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.
- 10.6 It shall be the responsibility of Designated Persons to ensure compliance of clauses 10.1 to 10.4 above in case of their immediate relatives also.
- 10.7 All Designated Persons who buy or sell any number of shares of the company shall not execute a contra trade i.e. sell or buy any number of shares during the next six months following the prior transaction. Provided that this shall not be applicable for trades pursuant to exercise of stock options.
- 10.8 The Compliance Officer may grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate the regulations.

10.9 Should a contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act.

11. Trading Plans

11.1 An Insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

11.2 Such trading plan shall: –

- (i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than one hundred and twenty calendar days from the public disclosure of the plan;
- (ii) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- (iii) set out following parameters for each trade to be executed:
 - (a) either the value of trade to be effected or the number of securities to be traded;
 - (b) nature of the trade;
 - (c) either specific date or time period not exceeding five consecutive trading days;
 - (d) price limit, that is an upper price limit for a buy trade and a lower price limit for a sell trade, subject to the range as specified below:
 - for a buy trade: the upper price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent higher than such closing price;
 - for a sell trade: the lower price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent lower than such closing price.

Explanation:

- (a) While the parameters in sub-clauses (a), (b) and (c) shall be mandatorily mentioned for each trade, the parameter in sub-clause (d) shall be optional.
- (b) The price limit in sub-clause (d) shall be rounded off to the nearest numeral.
- (c) Insider may make adjustments, with the approval of the compliance officer, in the number of securities and price limit in the event of corporate actions related to bonus issue and stock split occurring after the approval of trading plan and the same shall be notified on the stock exchanges on which securities are listed.
- (iv) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

11.3 The Compliance Officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of the Regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.

11.4 Pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan. Further, trading window norms shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

11.5 The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan or to deviate from it except due to permanent incapacity or bankruptcy or operation of law.

Provided that the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced if any unpublished price sensitive information in possession of the insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation.

Provided further that if the insider has set a price limit for a trade under clause 11.2 (iii) (d), the insider shall execute the trade only if the execution price of the security is within such limit. If price of the security is outside the price limit set by the insider, the trade shall not be executed.

Explanation: In case of non-implementation (full/ partial) of trading plan due to either reasons enumerated in clause 11.5 or failure of execution of trade due to inadequate liquidity in the scrip, the following procedure shall be adopted:

- (i) The insider shall intimate non-implementation (full/partial) of trading plan to the compliance officer within two trading days of end of tenure of the trading plan with reasons thereof and supporting documents, if any.
- (ii) Upon receipt of information from the insider, the compliance officer, shall place such information along with his recommendation to accept or reject the submissions of the insider, before the Audit Committee in the immediate next meeting. The Audit Committee shall decide whether such non-implementation (full/ partial) was bona fide or not.
- (iii) The decision of the Audit Committee shall be notified by the compliance officer on the same day to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.
- (iv) In case the Audit Committee does not accept the submissions made by the insider, then the compliance officer shall take action as per the Code of Conduct.

11.6 The Compliance Officer shall approve or reject the trading plan within two trading days of receipt of the trading plan and notify the approved plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed, on the day of approval.
