Jaro Education Renews Exclusive Partnership with Symbiosis International (Deemed University)

Mumbai, 29th December 2025:

High-growth partnership ranked among the Company's top three institutional relationships

Jaro Education (NSE: JARO, BSE: 544534), a leading higher education and upskilling company, announced the renewal of its exclusive partnership with Symbiosis School for Online and Digital Learning Centre for Distance and online learning education (SSODL), a constituent of Symbiosis International (Deemed University) (SIU). The renewal highlights the continued strength and strategic importance of this high-growth collaboration, focused on expanding access to recognised undergraduate and postgraduate programmes across India.

Jaro Education has been associated with SIU since February 2023 under an exclusive agreement to support student counselling and acquisition for academic offerings by SSODL. Building on the success of the initial three-year term, the agreement has now been renewed for an extended five-year period, reflecting the deep trust, strategic alignment and long-standing partnership between the two institutions, as well as the sustained learner demand across the SSODL programme portfolio.

Founded in 2009, Jaro Education has built long-term partnerships with more than 36 premier Indian and global institutions, including leading IIMs, IITs, top NIRF-ranked universities, such as Symbiosis International University, a 24th-ranked national institution. Acting as a bridge between academic institutions and learners, Jaro supports the complete programme lifecycle, from admissions and learner outreach to delivery enablement, across online and hybrid formats. With a portfolio of more than 268 programmes and over 350,000 learners supported, the Company operates a scalable, asset-light, tech-enabled business model.

Symbiosis International (Deemed University) is one of India's most recognised multidisciplinary universities, offering a wide range of undergraduate and postgraduate programmes across management, technology, economics, data science, and media studies. The university is known for its academic rigour, industry-aligned curriculum, and national footprint.

Under the renewed agreement, Jaro Education will continue to provide admissions related services for the following Symbiosis programmes, as per the terms of the agreement: Master of Business Administration (MBA), Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA), Bachelor of Computer Applications (BCA), Master of Science (Computer Applications), Master of Science (Data Science), Bachelor of Science (Economics) Honours, Master of Science (Economics), and Master of Arts (Mass Communication) along with newly added programmes Master of Science (Applied Statistics) and Master of Arts (International Studies).

High-Growth Partnership with Strong Revenue Visibility

The collaboration with SIU has emerged as one of Jaro Education's top three institutional relationships, with gross fees value of ~₹ 450 Crs over the last three years reflecting growing learner demand and the effectiveness of the collaboration.

Strategic Significance of this Partnership

The renewal of this exclusive partnership with :

- Strengthens multi-year revenue visibility and institutional depth
- Enhances scalability and operating leverage
- Deepens presence in the higher-education degree segment
- Reinforces the Company's focus on long-term, high-quality partnerships
- Supports sustainable growth across priority programme categories

Commenting on the renewal, Mr. Sanjay Salunkhe, Chairman and Managing Director of Jaro Education, said:

"This partnership reflects how we approach education at Jaro. Our role is not limited to enabling online delivery, but to help strong academic institutions scale responsibly without losing academic intent. Symbiosis brings deep academic credibility and a national reputation built over decades. By taking ownership of the systems around the classroom, from admissions to learner support, we ensure that this academic strength reaches learners at scale in a structured, credible, and outcome-driven manner."
