Expert panel appointed to solve night travel ban issue in Wayanad: Gadkari to Priyanka

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

WAYANAD, JAN 29: An expert committee has been appointed to study the feasibility of a tunnel as an alternative to the forest route to solve the night travel ban, Union Minister Nitin Gadkari has informed Congress MP Priyanka Gandhi Vadra.

The Union Road Transport Minister also informed the MP from Wayanad that Rs 106 crore has been approved from the Central Road Infrastructure Fund (CRIF) for four road development projects in her constituency, a statement issued by the Congress said. The Union Minister informed Priyanka about these developments in a letter as she had raised these issues before him in writing in October last year and later in a meeting last month, it said. Gadkari also informed her that an expert committee consisting of retired Assistant Director General RK Pandey and Palakkad IIT Associate Professor Dr Divya PV had submitted the recommendations for the urgent and long-term actions to deal with the ongoing landslides in the Thamarassery Pass and directions in respect of that have been issued to the state Public Works Department, the statement said.
