statements. 'The Company's Board of Directors are responsible forthe preparation of these financial results that give a true and fair view of the net loss and othercomprehensive income and other financial information in accordance with the recognition and measurementprinciples laid down in Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under Section 133 of the Act read withrelevant rules issued thereunder and other accounting principles generally accepted in India and incompliance with Regulation 33 of the Listing Regulations.

This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, receivant to the preparationary presentations of the state adoles a financial establishment give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial results, the Board of Directors are responsible for assessing the Company's abilityto continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the goingconcern basis of accounting unless the Board of Directors either intends to liquidate the Company or to ceaseoperations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Annual Financial Results

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial results as a whole are freefrom material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes ouropinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted inaccordance with SAs will always detect amaterial misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise fromfraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably beexpected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these standalone financial results.

as pair or all anort of accordation wearders, with Selscynoresrishary of griene Lindmannamed maintain professionalskepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- 1. Identity and assess the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial results, whetherdue to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to these risks, and obtainaudit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of notdetecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, asfraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override ofinternal control.
- 2. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the company's internal control.

- 3. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accountingestimates and related disclosures made by the Board of Directors.
- 4. Conclude on the appropriateness of the Roard of Directors' use of the going concern modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the standalone financial results, including the disclosures, and whether the financial results represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scopeand timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal controlthat we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

The Statement includes the results for the quarter ended March 31, 2022 being the balancing figure betweenthe audited figures in respect of the full financial year ended March 31, 2022 and the published unauditedyear to-date figures up to the third quarter of the current financial year, which were subjected to a limitedreview by us, as required under the Listing Regulations. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.
