JAN FAR INFLOWS TOP ₹12K CR High yields, RBI support key drivers, but interest weak

Foreign Money Still Flowing into Bonds

Rozbud Gonsalves

Mumbai: Indian bonds eligible under the fully accessible route (FAR) attracted inflows of ₹12,160 crore in January, according to CIL data. This comes at a time when foreign investors have been steadily pulling out money from Indian equities. Economists said elevated Indian bond yields have offered an attractive entry point for foreign portfolio investors coupled with expectations of liquidity support through open market operations and a slower pace of rupee depreciation this year, which aided demand.

However, active foreign interest in Indian debt remains subdued, and experts do not expect sizeable inflows into FAR securities over the course of the year. An outlook on the currency and its depreciation would be a key consideration for global fund managers when deciding which markets to invest in. "The board story is that flows remain weak. Volatility and outlook for the currency are key part of the decisions of any global fund manager who is allocating funds. To that extent, the rupee is still volatile and is underperforming. You require a period of stability here and some outlook on when this sharp depreciation is going to stop for fund managers to actively consider India," said Abhishek Upadhyay, senior economist, fixed income strategy, at ICICI Securities Primary Dealership. The rupee, which has weakened 7% in this fiscal year, closed at a record low of 99.98 to the dollar on Friday. Consistently high GDP and nominal GDP would also be major triggers, along with any positive outcome on the US-India trade deal, experts say. "While difficult to say, going ahead, FPIs would be on the lookout for triggers to enter India during the course of this year, and consistently good real GDP growth and an improvement in nominal GDP numbers will be important. Any positive developments on the India-US trade deal will also be an important trigger," said Dhiraaj Nim, economist and FX strategist at ANZ Banking Group. Nim expects the rupee to be at 93/81 by December 2026. "Given low inflation and less likelihood of further easing by the RBI, real yield advantage for India could be playing out, amid a rebound in growth," Nim said. Flows in January were the second-highest recorded in the current fiscal year, trailing closely behind those seen in October.

Forex Kitty at New Record

Mumbai: India's foreign exchange reserves rose to $709 billion, a new all-time high, mainly due to valuation gains on gold holdings, showed Reserve Bank of India data for the week ended January 23. The reserves had previously hit a record high of $704.9 billion in September 2024. The value of gold holdings increased by $5.6 billion week-on-week to $123 billion, while foreign currency assets rose by $2.3 billion to $582 billion, the RBI data showed. "The increase in forex reserves by $8 billion on a week-on-week basis is due to revaluation gains led by gold and dollar weakness," said Gaura Sengupta, chief economist at IDFC First Bank. The rise in reserves came despite the RBI selling dollars in the market, with the impact of the self-off counterbalanced by a sharp rise in gold prices. The current reserve level is adequate to cover about 11 months of imports. — Our Bureau

Shah: Congress changed Assam's demography, PM reversing trend

'Two BJP Govts Freed 1.2 Lakh Acres Of Land From Infiltrators'

Dhemaji: Claiming that the demography of Assam changed during Congress rule, Union Home Minister Amit Shah on Friday said the BJP-led government under Prime Minister Narendra Modi is working to reverse the trend. Addressing the closing ceremony of the 10th Mising Youth Festival organised by Takam Mising Porin Kebang (All Mising Students' Union) at Kareng Chapor here as the chief guest, Shah appealed to people to vote for the BJP in the upcoming Assembly elections to free the state from infiltration. "Assam's demography totally changed during the Congress rule. The population of infiltrators rose to 64 lakh in nil, and infiltrators became a majority in several districts," he alleged. Shah asserted that the Modi government was working through various means to reverse the demographic trend in the state. "If you want to stop infiltration in Assam, then elect the

Union home minister Amit Shah and Assam chief minister Himanta Biswa Sarma during an event in Dibrugarh on Friday

BJP government for a third term and strengthen the hands of Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma in the fight against illegal immigrants. Two BJP state governments in Assam have freed 1.26 lakh acres of land from encroachment by infiltrators," he added.

The Union home minister also stressed the role played by the Mising community in stopping infiltrators from settling in Upper Assam. "It's the responsibility of the Mising community to stop infiltration. You do not need to take up guns. Through your culture of hard work, infiltrators have not been able to come to this side," he said.

Talking about the Bogibhel bridge over Brahmaputra river connecting Dibrugarh and Dhemaji, Shah said it stands as a symbol of India's progress before the entire world. "However, very few people in India know that the Bogibhel Bridge was built through the hard work and sweat of my brothers and sisters from the Mising community. Today, this bridge has become a powerful representation of the vision of a New India, both across the nation and globally," he added.

The Union home minister further said that Rajya Sabha MP from Assam, Manmohan Singh had served as Prime Minister for 10 years, but this bridge remained incomplete.

Tharoor: My stand pro-govt on 'certain' issues

Thiruvananthapuram: Senior Congress leader Shashi Tharoor on Friday said that his stand on certain issues may have been seen as pro-BJP by the media, but he has only seen it as pro-government or pro-India. Tharoor said that he has made it clear in the past as well that on some international matters, he does not like to talk about politics and instead prefers to speak about the country.

Shashi Tharoor said he won't be leaving the Congress

"It is not something new, I have always said so," the Congress MP from Thiruvananthapuram told reporters here. A row had erupted last year over his comments on the India-Pakistan conflict and the diplomatic outreach after the Pahalgam attack. His comments were at variance with the Congress' stand and many party leaders took a swipe at him, questioning his intentions.

Tharoor, while speaking to reporters, also admitted that a party member should not go against the party line. "I have always stood with the party in Parliament and therefore, there is no need to be concerned," he said.

On being asked by reporters whether he can categorically state he will not leave the Congress party, Tharoor said, "I can say that I am going to be in the Congress and that I am not going anywhere. I will be part of the poll campaign (in Kerala) and will work for the victory of the UDF." "But, why is it that I am being asked to make such statements," he asked.

4 Naxals with total bounty of ₹8L surrender

Sukma (Chhattisgarh): Four Naxalites, including two women, carrying cumulative rewards of Rs 8 lakh, surrendered along with their weapons in Chhattisgarh's Sukma district on Friday, a senior police official said. The cadres, who belonged to the Kistaram area committee of the south Bastar division of Maoists, turned themselves in here under the state's Poona Margam (from rehabilitation to social reintegration) initiative. Inspector General of Police, Bastar Range, Sundaraj P. said, "The Naxalites told the police that they were impressed by the state government's surrender and rehabilitation policy."

Of the surrendered cadres, Sodhi Joga, an area committee member, carried a reward of Rs 5 lakh.

SC: Lawyer's presence in discharge of professional duty is not intimidation

New Delhi: Quashing a criminal case registered against an advocate, the Supreme Court has said that mere presence of a lawyer in his capacity of discharging professional duty of either giving advice or suggestion cannot amount to intimidation. A bench of Justices Arvind Kumar and P B Valsale said vague allegations unsupported by prima facie cogent evidence cannot constitute an offence indicated under Section 506 of the IPC (criminal intimidation).

The top court quashed the criminal case for offence under Section 506 of the IPC registered against lawyer Berti Manoj, who is an uncle of an accused in the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act (POCSO).

The bench noted that there was improvement in the statement of the victim given under

The top court quashed a criminal case registered against a lawyer under IPC's section 506

Section 161 of the CrPC (statement before a police officer) and Section 164 of the CrPC (statement before a magistrate).

"Last but not the least, the mere presence of a lawyer in his capacity of discharging professional duty of either giving advice or suggestion cannot amount to intimidation and this is foundational fact being conspicuously absent in the instant case, we are forced to disagree with the contention of learned counsel for the complainant (victim) and the learned counsel appearing for respondent No. 1 the State," the bench said in its order of January 20.

The top court said it notices from the clear statement recorded under Section 164 of the CrPC that no intention of criminal intimidation was prima facie established since prosecution of a person for criminal intimidation requires clear intention to cause alarm.

"In the absence thereof, continuation of the prosecution against the appellant by virtue of a vague reference to the expression 'an uncle' cannot, by itself, disclose any offence. Vague allegations unsupported by prima facie cogent evidence cannot constitute an offence indicated under section 506 of the IPC," it further added.

HC rejects teen's plea to terminate pregnancy, says it would amount to foeticide

Mumbai: The Bombay High Court has rejected a 16-year-old woman's plea to medically terminate her 28-week pregnancy, ruling that a forced termination would amount to foeticide as the foetus is healthy and viable.

A division bench of Justices Ravindra Ghuge and Abhay J. Mantri, in an order passed earlier this week, directed that the teen be provided comprehensive medical and psychological support until her delivery. "After the child is born, and is in a condition to be given away to a registered orphanage home for being put up for adoption, the Child Welfare Committee would assist the would-be mother even in this regard," the court ruled.

The teen's mother filed a petition, seeking termination of the pregnancy, which was the result of the girl's relationship with a male friend when she was 17. The male friend had forced the girl into a physical relationship after promising to marry her, the plea stated.

An FIR was registered on January 2, shortly after the teen was found to be pregnant. The petitioner's lawyer submitted that the teen does not desire to continue with the pregnancy.

The Bombay HC noted that the relationship had been consensual, though legally impermissible and it was her decision to have it terminated. The court, in its order, noted the fact remains that such a relationship at the said age had been consensual, though legally impermissible. It also stated that the medical board's conclusion that "there is a high chance of a live child being born if the pregnancy is terminated through pre-natal delivery." The medical board also opined that the foetus was without any congenital abnormality or anomaly, the order stated.

Taking into consideration the medical board's view, gestational age of the foetus and the Supreme Court's judgements on the subject, the court denied nod for termination of the pregnancy, "which would amount to foeticide if granted," it said.
