Realtor found dead in B'luru amid I-T raids on premises

Arun Dev
letters@hindustantimes.com

BENGALURU: Confident Group founder and chairman CJ Roy was found dead on Friday at his residence in central Bengaluru while Income-Tax authorities were conducting raids on premises linked to his firm, police said, adding that they suspect it to be a case of suicide.

The 57-year-old real estate tycoon was found with bullet injuries by Income-Tax officials at his bungalow in Langford Town.

He was rushed to a private hospital before being shifted for advanced care to the Narayana Hospital in HSR Layout, where he was declared dead, said deputy commissioner of police (Central) Akshay Hakay.

Bengaluru police commissioner Seemanth Kumar Singh, who later visited the scene, said a case has been registered at Ashok Nagar police station on the basis of a complaint filed by an executive at Roy's firm. "Prima facie, it appears that industrialist CJ Roy has shot himself. The body has been shifted to Narayana Hospital in HSR Layout. The SOCO (Scene of Crime Officer) team, ballistic experts, and other officials have arrived at the scene and are investigating," he said.

Bengaluru City Police said tax authorities were conducting coordinated searches at multiple locations connected to the Confident Group, a major developer in the luxury housing markets of Bengaluru and Kerala. The company has been involved in tax disputes and appeals before the Karnataka high court and the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal.

According to the commissioner, the incident took place at around 3.15pm. "According to initial reports, I-T questioning had been taking place at the premises for the past three days, including today (Friday). Roy was questioned today. What exactly transpired during the questioning will be investigated," he said.

Asked whether the case would be treated as a suicide or whether charges of abetment to suicide might be added, Singh said the matter remained open. "Charges will be framed based on the complaint," he said.

Officials in the Income Tax office in Kochi did not respond to HT's calls for a response.

According to officers aware of the details, Roy was allegedly in his first-floor office chamber when the shot was fired. "Searches had been going on for three days. He was questioned in his office around 12-1pm. By 3.15pm, the questioning was over. He said he would make a call to his family and come back. He then went into another room and shot himself," one of the officers said, requested anonymity.

Confident Group, in a statement on social media platforms, mourned the demise of Roy.

"Our beloved leader has departed from us, but not from the path he showed us....," it said.

Casual remarks are not abetment of suicide: HC

Vishnu Varma

THIRUVANANTHAPURAM: The Kerala high court has ruled that casual remarks such as "go away and die" often employed during a quarrel between two people do not amount to abetment of suicide. The bench of justice C Pratheep Kumar made the observations while examining a criminal revision petition filed by a 30-year-old man who faced charges including abetment to suicide.

In this case, the petitioner was in a relationship with a married woman. When the woman came to know that he was planning to marry another woman, she inquired with him, resulting in a verbal quarrel. During the argument, he allegedly told her to "go away and die". The woman and her five-year-old daughter subsequently died by suicide in 2023.

The man had filed the petition challenging an order of a sessions court rejecting his plea for discharge in the case. The sessions court had decided to frame charges against him under sections 306 (abetment of suicide) and 204 (destruction of document to prevent its production as evidence) of the IPC.

"The intention of the accused is important and not what is felt by the deceased. In this case also, the words 'go away and die' made by the petitioner was in the midst of a wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the deceased in a heat of passion without having any intention to instigate the deceased to commit suicide and as such the offence under section 306 IPC is not made out," the high court bench ruled on January 28.

S.I.T. QUESTIONS ACTOR JAYARAM IN SABARIMALA CASE

THIRUVANANTHAPURAM: The SIT, probing the misappropriation of gold assets from the Sabarimala temple, questioned actor Jayaram at the latter's residence in Chennai, mainly about his dealings and relationship with the first accused Unnikrishnan Potty, officials familiar with the matter said on Friday.

The police team asked the actor if he was involved in any financial transactions with Potty and the number of times he participated in poojas and other religious rituals organised by the key accused in the case.

When the gold theft case first surfaced last year, videos of the prominent Kerala actor sharing the stage with Potty at various events had circulated on social platforms.

Potty was arrested by the SIT on November 3 and arraigned as the first accused in two cases registered so far.
