ONGC Q4 net up 37% at '5,915 cr

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

On back of higher oil prices, State-owned Oil and Natural Gas Corp (ONGC) on Wednesday posted its net profit of ₹5,915.12 crore, a jump of three months to ₹5,218.12 crore. The net profit it in the fourth quarter of 2017-18, the highest profit in last 17 quarters, was higher than ₹4,340.18 crore net in the same period of the previous fiscal, according to the company.

Besides, the board of directors of ONGC recommended a final dividend of ₹1.35 per share (27 per cent). This is in addition to the interim dividend of ₹5.25 per share declared in two phases previously.

The oil and gas major realised $66.71 for every barrel of crude oil it produced from nominated fields, up from $54.91 a barrel it got in January-March 2017. Gas price realisation was also up 15.6 per cent at $2.89 per million British thermal unit. ONGC's oil production declined 3 per cent at 6.2 million tonnes in the quarter. For the full 2017-18 fiscal, net profit was up 11.4 per cent at ₹19,945 crore.

However, the turnover in the fourth quarter rose 5 per cent to ₹27,703.54 crore.

The company made 12 oil and gas discoveries in the year, half of them were on land. Out of the six on-land discoveries, two were monetised during the year itself, the statement said without giving details. "In FY18, ONGC has registered an RRR in excess of one for the 12th consecutive year. This reflects ONGC's strong exploratory record over the years," it said.

Independence on survival

FIANS ■ MUMBAI

Despite the promise of 'Make in India' and the rhetoric of defence modernisation, the fortunes of India's ship building industry continue to sink, with more and more companies slipping into the red.

The latest addition to the list is L&T Shipbuilding Ltd.

The independent auditors of the L&T Shipbuilding Ltd, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Larsen

& Toubro, have raised concerns about the company's continuance as a 'going concern' based on the financials of 2016-2017.

The report by Sharp & Tannan indicates that the company had accumulated losses carried forward from the previous year and has incurred significant cash losses during the current and previous financial year.
