PRESS RELEASE

Saboo Sodium Chloro Limited Acquires 26 Acres of Land in Chimur, Maharashtra near Tadoba National Park and Announces 5-Star 'Samskara Tadoba'

Jaipur, Rajasthan – December 31, 2025 – Saboo Sodium Chloro Limited (SSCL, “Company”) is pleased to announce that the Company has purchased approximately 26 acres of land in Chimur near Tadoba National Park for the development of Samskara Tadoba. This marks our third land acquisition of 2025 after earlier purchases in Jawai and Udaipur for the development of 5-star luxury resorts.

- ❖ Samskara Tadoba, a 5-star resort, will have upto 150 keys, 2 signature restaurants, a bar, multiple pools, a private lake, an observation tower, nature walks, luxury conferencing spaces, recreational activities, a spa, a gymnasium and a kids' zone. The resort will open to guests by 2027. The project is estimated to create employment for upto 250 persons.
- ❖ The Company is applying to the Government of Maharashtra for benefits under the state's existing industrial and tourism promotion policies. Construction shall commence in the coming months after the Company receives all requisite approvals. The Company has already initiated discussions for the architectural, construction and consulting services for the project.
- ❖ With this development, SSCL has over 850 keys in its pipeline over 4 locations – Jaipur, Udaipur, Jawai and Tadoba – and the Company is aiming to become a nationally leading luxury hotelier. SSCL remains engaged in further late-stage land acquisition discussions in markets like Ranthambore, Jodhpur, Jaisalmer and Achrol.

Note: Forward looking statements may change and differ materially depending on all factors.
